Returned To Tennessee

Miss Linda Martin and Mrs. Nannie M. Baker have returned to their home in Nashville, Tennessee, after spending the summer with their nieces, Mrs. J. B. Hargett, Misses Mary and Anna Vaught. Miss Mary Vaught went to Tennessee about two weeks ago to resume her teaching in the school in Erwin.

Guests From Colorado

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Kirmack and Mr. and Mrs. F. Y. Parker, of Denver, Colorado, (the ladies near relatives of the late Mrs. L. D. Brewer), came by Harrodsburg this week from the East on their summer vacation, to see Mr. Brewer and other friends in the community, and to visit the Old Fort and Cemetery. Mr. Brewer had not seen these dear friends since his marriage in Columbia, Mo., in 1892, and was delighted to have had a brief visit with them. They were much interested in their visit to the Old Fort and Cemetery in Harrodsburg, and to old Providence Cemetery where lie so many of their Pioneer McAfee relatives.

Kentucky Inn Guests

Misses Sara Lee Duckworth, Evelyn Elliott, Messrs. James Lloyd and Jean Gardner, of Hodgenville, were guests Sunday at the Kentucky Inn.

Warner-Russell Marriage

Miss Mary Beulah Warner and Mr. Alvin Russell were united in marriage Saturday, September 26, at the home of Rev. W. T. Best, the officiating minister. The charming nineteen-year-old bride is the daughter of Mr. Elsworth Warner, near Duncan, and the groom is a fine young man, the son of Mrs. Charles Bugg, Rose Hill. Accompanying the young couple were Mr. and Mrs. Foster Devine, near Duncan, with whom they are staying at present. Later they will make their home with Mr. Russell's aunt, Mrs. Will Lord, of Miami, Fla.

Mrs. Glave Goddard has returned from a visit with Mrs. W. T. Bond, Lawrenceburg.

Miss Anne Dedman spent part of the week in Louisville with Mrs. Fox Caldwell and Miss Elizabeth Caldwell, of Danville.

Misses Christine and Frances Britton spent last week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Britton, at Cornishville. Miss Frances is a bookkeeper for a business firm in Frankfort, and Miss Christine is attending the University of Kentucky, Lexington.

Dr. and Mrs. G. B. Thompson and son, Allen, Mrs. J. M. Lilly and Mrs. Hugh Ketron spent a pleasant day at Berea recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Davenport and little son, of Owenton, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jones, Salvisa and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davenport, Harrodsburg.

Mrs. Buford Land, of Wilmore, is visiting her mother, Mrs. R. J. Wilder, Greenville street.

Mrs. W. H. Moore, Salvisa, is visiting her grandson, Jack W. Jones, Mrs. Jones and little Miss Frances Jones, Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wilder left Thursday for Livingston, Kansas, where they will spend a few days.

Cruelty to Animals

Lawmakers all go to bat to suppress cruelty in any form to man or beast. All the states seem to retain the criminal offense of docking a horse's tail, although evil consequences may be avoided in Michigan by obtaining from a veterinary surgeon a certificate stating that it was necessary for the "health and safety of such horse." Many of these statutes are longer and more detailed than the murder statutes in the same books. Often, of course, a companion law is found making it a similar offense to crop a dog's ears "except where performed by a registered veterinary surgeon while the dog is under an anesthetic."

Mustard Oldest Spice

Mustard has been put to many uses that have nothing to do with ham sandwiches or corned beef. It is one of the oldest known spices, and among its earliest uses was its application to scorpion bites, which it was believed to make innocuous. A later generation made a cough syrup of mustard by boiling it with dried figs in strong ale. The custom of grinding the mustard seeds and sifting them to a fine powder, the form in which we use it so frequently, dates back to 1720, when an English woman known to history simply as "Mrs. Clements of Durham" made the experiment and found it tasty.

Virtues of Philosophy

In the Eighteenth century there was still a widespread and innocent belief in the virtues of philosophy, and Rousseau, the great social philosopher, received two separate calls to prescribe for the maladies of France.

Ring Finger Protected

The fourth finger of the left hand is the ring finger, because it is the least used hand and the finger can only be stretched when other fingers guard it.

Sought Silver, Found Ice

The ice mine near Coudersport, Pa., was encountered when a shaft was being sunk for silver. The project was abandoned. The crevices in the rock filled with ice, although it was summer. This natural phenomenon has a scientific explanation.

Bird Migration Slow

The speed of bird migration is, as a rule, rather slow; a daily rate of 25 miles is about the average.
