IS YOUR MEMORY GOOD?

Editor D. M. Hutton—

In Miss Arnett's competition for the $1,000 prize offered by the Republican National Committee on the best essay: "Why I am for Roosevelt," this is one of the twenty reasons she submitted why she was for Mr. Roosevelt, and it seems if the remaining nineteen are as essential as this one, she should receive the much coveted prize.
In fact it carries us back to the trying days of 1929 to 1932 inclusive.
Very truly,
S. D. Ison.

radio propagandist, William Hard, for the best essay on "Why I am for Roosevelt."

Miss Arnett wields a wicked pen.
She submitted 20 reasons why she thought the President should be re-elected. Here is one:

"I ain't just what you would call an old hag, but I can remember back when Mr. Hoover's breadlines stretched twice around a certain block in Toledo."

"And after some of those poor guys had waited in line from 8 in the morning until 5 in the afternoon they were finally rewarded with a sack of wormy rice and a slab of moldy baccon, with which they were supposed to keep the bodies and souls of four or five kids together."

"Why, say, your hatred of Roosevelt, because he has increased your taxes and curbed your stock market steals, is as the flame of a candle compared to the leaping, passionate fires which burn in the hearts of thousands of men when they recall the regime of Herbert Hoover."

"In conclusion, let me say that I'm for Roosevelt because he has had nerve enough to fight you big shots with skill and resourcefulness, and, because of that and other humanitarian measures, his name will rank pretty high when the roll is called up yonder."

ANDERSON CO. WORLD WAR MEMORIAL BOUGHT

The World War Memorial, which is to stand in front of the court house, was purchased last Thursday night, and will be delivered in Lawrenceburg, this week, in order that it may be erected in time for an unveiling ceremony, which is set for November 11.

The monument is made from the best grade of granite and was purchased from the Central Kentucky Monument Company, through its local representative, Charles L. Martin. It is seven feet six inches tall, five feet wide and 22 inches thick.
It stands on a base one foot, four inches tall, seven feet, six inches long and three and one-half feet wide, making the whole monument a height of almost nine feet.

In the center of the monument will be a bronze tablet which will contain the engraved names of those Anderson countians who gave their lives in the great conflict. The tablet will be five feet tall and three feet wide. Cut in the stone above the tablet will be symbols representing Air, Land and Naval forces of the country.

ecutive committee Thursday filed tion ballot.

and George B. Martin, of Catletts-burg, are the electors from the state

GLASS EYE DIET FOR SPRINGFIELD YOUNGSTER

Len Spalding, the year-old-son of Dr. and Mrs. Leonard Spalding, of Springfield, has returned from St.
Joseph's Infirmary in Louisville, where he was under treatment for several days. He swallowed a glass eye from a stuffed toy, with wire attached, which was removed without an operation.—Springfield Sun.

An Opportunity For Harrodsburg

To Enlarge Water Works Reservoir Capacity And Extend Sewer Lines.

The pinch of inadequate water supplies felt by many towns and cities in Kentucky during the drouth of the past summer may be overcome in the future through the Works Progress Administration, George H. Goodman, said, he is anxious and willing to prosecute projects of this type in any town in the State. He pointed out, however, that it was necessary for local governmental units to make comprehensive surveys of their water conservation needs and to file with the Works Progress Administration a proper sponsor's application. Such applications may be filed in any of the district offices of the Works Progress Administration at Madisonville, Louisville, Danville, Lexington, London or Paintsville.

Mr. Goodman was explicit in stating that it was impossible for the Works Progress Administration to do any work on private property except in cases where perpetual public rights were given. But, he said there's nothing to keep local governmental units from acquiring small parcels of land suitable for water conservation and thereby opening the way for Federal assistance through W. P. A. Suitable proof must be filed with each project application, he said, that the site is publicly owned and that the benefits of the project will accrue to the interest of all.

In some Kentucky towns dams and reservoirs already have been constructed by the Works Progress Administration. In others additional pipe lines have been laid and added pumping facilities installed.

Some Kentucky towns whose sewage has emptied into nearby streams for years, often through open ditches, have joined hands with the Works Progress Administration and now possess adequate disposal systems and enhanced water supplies, both a boon to good health.

Funds are available for sewer extension where there is territory now supplied with such facilities.

In every instance where water mains have been laid or extended there has followed a reduction in insurance rates to the benefit of the property-owner and taxpayer aside from the permanent convenience.

"Certainly it behooves every municipality in Kentucky," Mr. Goodman said, "to seriously consider its water and sewerage needs at this time. The Works Progress Administration stands ready and willing to cooperate to the fullest extent. Projects of this type are highly constructive and permanent. We prefer them. At the same time needy workers are employed."

5,000 MORE KY. FARMERS ON DROUTH RELIEF

Administrator Goodman, Saturday authorized to place 5,000 more farmers on Kentucky WPA drouth projects bringing the total of employed to 15,000. Goodman said credit for the WPA work exceeded $3,000,000 and many regular roll employees idle during the summer, will be paid on the payroll for the fall anwinter.

Worth-While Things

There are so many worth-while things to talk about, if only we would turn our attention to them. Books for instance. What fruitful time friends can have talking over the books that they have been reading.
Music and art make good topics of conversation. If each of us would resolve to lift his talk a little, the level of gossip would rise and every body would be better off.

Greeley's Prediction Premature

Just before the year 1930, Horace Greeley, visiting the Far West, predicted that California, then a state of about a third of a million people, would have a population of 3,000,000 by the year 1900. It did not reach this mark till the 1920 census.

TO THE DEMOCRATS OF MERCER COUNTY

I have been appointed by James A.
Farley, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, Chairman of the finance committee for Mercer County, to solicit funds for the National Committee. In order to secure the necessary funds to meet the expenses of this campaign the Democratic National Committee must depend upon contributions made by individuals, as the moneyed interests of the country are strenuously opposing President Roosevelt. If you are interested in the re-election of President Roosevelt, and want to have a share in it, we urge you to make a contribution. If not called on by one of the committee, make your contribution to either myself, Mrs. Ruth Strader at the Court House, or to the Harrodsburg Herald. All funds secured will go direct to the Treasurer of the Democratic National Committee, and should be sent to him not later than October 15th. Please make your contribution early.

Respectfully,
T. W. Latta.
