Rise and Fall of Styles
In Queen Anne's reign, at the beginning of the Eighteenth century, it became fashionable for women to appear on London's streets in their nightgowns, a fashion which came to a quick end when a woman was executed in a garment of this description. Another example of negative prestige killing a new fashion was the sudden disappearance of "bloome's" in 1851, when a London brewery dressed all their barmaids in this costume.

PERRYVILLE

A brief service was held at the residence Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock for Mr. George Mayes, 89 years of age, and a highly esteemed citizen of this city, who passed away in South Perryville.
The deepest sympathy of everyone here is felt for Mrs. Josie G. Mayes, not only on account of the loss of her husband, but by the death of her brother, Mr. Henry Graves, 76 years of age, who passed away suddenly Saturday at his home in Mackville at practically the same time of Mr. Mayes' death.
Luther Brickey, who is employed by the F. J. Greer Hardware Company at Perryville, had the misfortune to lose his Chevrolet coupe, by fire Saturday afternoon while returning to his home in Danville. Mr. Brickey's attention was attracted to the blaze by the screams of two women in a car behind him. He removed the seat in his car, the flames poured out, and the car was soon a total loss from the fire. A shortage in the wires was believed to have been the cause of the fire. Mr. Brickey escaped injury except for a few burns on the hands.
The meeting which has been in progress at the Christian Church for the past ten days grows in interest with each service. Rev. W. J. Arvin is preaching some very inspiring sermons and much interest is being manifested with splendid crowds attending. There have been 5 additions to the church. The meeting will close with the services next Sunday. On this day there is to be a basket dinner with an afternoon program and the roll call. Two hundred is the goal set for Sunday School on this day.
James William Stigall left Saturday for Richmond, Ky., where he entered Eastern Kentucky State Normal School for the ensuing term. Prof. Jack Thompson accompanied him to that city for the day.
A son was born on Friday, September 11, to Mr. and Mrs. Stallard Webb at their home on the Springfield road.
Mr. Clayton Martin, of Louisville, spent the week-end at his home in Brumfield.
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carter and son, of Stanford, spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Carter.
Miss Geraldine Powers is confined to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Powers, by illness.
Prof. Leslie Mayes, of Owenton, Ky. spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Hattie Mayes.
Mr. J. P. Stigall spent Monday in Lexington on business.
Mr. and Mrs. Clell Caldwell and two sons, of Louisville, were Sunday visitors of Mrs. J. E. Caldwell.
Mrs. Kizzie Harmon, of Nashville, Tenn., and Mrs. Matt Mayes, of Danville, visited relatives and friends here Monday.

TABLOW

(Mrs. Ezra Lay, Cor.)

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sanders had as their guests Sunday their children, Mrs. Irvin Royalty and family, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Sanders and children, of Bardstown, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Robinson and children. They came to be with their brother, Mr. Dan Sanders and family, who left Monday for Miami, Florida.
Mr. and Mrs. William Sims, of Salvisa, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Isham spent Sunday with their mother, Mrs. Harve Barnett, of Battle.
Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Lay and Houston Gritton drove to Louisville Sept. 17th for the fair just for the day, but a truck ran into the car of Mrs. Lay's sister's family with considerable damage to the car and the occupants slightly injured, delaying all another day and night which was

Bananas in Cluster
From 50 to 150 bananas grow in a single cluster or bunch.

Rembrandt Fooled Public
The famous Dutch painter, Rembrandt, being at one time hard up for money, gave out that he was dead and his paintings, finished and unfinished, would be sold at auction. Crowds flocked to the auction to buy some of the last works of so famed an artist, the most trifling work fetching handsome prices. When the people found the trick out he was never esteemed or trusted again.

First Witchcraft Trial
The first witchcraft trial and execution, against Margaret Jones, of Charlestown, Mass., was held June 15, 1549.
