

Harrodsburg Police Court

Plaintiff

W. T. Sistrunk & Co

-v- Petition

Defendant

D. M. Brown

Plaintiff, a Kentucky corporation states that the defendant is indebted to it the sum of $70.97 for goods and merchandise sold and furnished to him at his instance and request which he has agreed to pay but he has failed to do so; that said sum is past due and owing and unpaid; an account thereof is filed herewith as a part hereof marked account for identity; that the ~~defendant~~ plaintiff believes it should recover the full sum of $70.97 with interest and costs; that it is just; that the defendant has no proper in this State subject to execution or not sufficient thereof to satisfy and pay the amount of this debt interest and costs and the collection thereof will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment and a return of no property found.

Wherefore the Plaintiff prays judgment for $70.97 with interest from this date and costs; for a general order of attachment against the defendant with Caledonian Insurance Co, American Alliance Insurance Co and Ohio Valley Insurance Co as garnishees and generally for all proper relief.
