CARD OF THANKS—We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of our daughter and sister. We especially wish to thank Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gritton and Mrs. Ethel Brown and also Sister Howard for offering prayer and her comforting words. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Norris and family.

CARD OF THANKS—We, John H. Buckley and Violet Buckley Wetig, brother and sister of Eliza Buckley, who departed this life upon March 31st, 1936, wish to thank with deep gratitude the many kind friends and neighbors who have expressed their kind sympathy with deeds of kindness in our hour of bereavement. God bless them all is our prayer. John and Violet.

Her frequent quotation was: "I look unto the hills from whence my help cometh."

A Day's March Nearer Home
Forever with the Lord
Amen, so let it be.
Life from the dead is in that word
Tis immortality.

Here in the body pent
Absent from Him I roam
Yet, nightly pitch
My moving tent
A day's march nearer home.
Nearer home, nearer home,
A day's march nearer home.

My Father's house on high,
Home of my soul how dear.
At times by faith's all seeing eye
Thy golden gates appear.

Ah, then my spirit faints
To reach the land I love
The bright inheritance of saints,
Jerusalem above.

Forever with the Lord,
Father if tis thy will,
The promise of that faithful word,
E'en here to me fulfill.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Misses Burchell

Entertain
Misses Elizabeth and Louise Burchell entertained a few of their friends with a party at their home near Dix Dam Saturday night. Those present were: Misses Susan Ann Murphy, Dorothy and Wilma King, Sadie Royalty, Katie Burchell, Dorothy Slama, Della Mae McGinnis, Benna Leach and Vivian Scott, Messrs. Herbert Knight, Billy Dean, Ben Devine, Walter, J. C. and Gilbert Murphy, Bill Hayden, Thurman Denny, Cecil Gaines, Ray and Orland Webb, Gordon McMurray, Cecil Mills, G. W. Royalty, Elmer Gritton and Harry Gordon.

The Egyptian Lady's Bath

The services of four handmaidens were required to make the bath of an Egyptian lady of quality all that a bath was supposed to be. She sat upon a mat, while one maid held a fragrant flower to her nose and supported her with her hand. Another maiden poured water over her from an urn of rare beauty while a third and a fourth were required to massage her arms and hold her ornaments.

Historic Ski Trip

The most important sport event of the year in Dalecarlia, Sweden, is a ski race from Mora to commemorate a ski trip made by the Dalecarlians in the Sixteenth century. Two men were sent to recall Gustavus Vasa, the national hero, and ask him to lead the country, but they did not overtake him until he was near the Norwegian frontier.

Scott's Pet

Sir Walter Scott had a stag-hound, Maida, of most majestic appearance. Maida's pet aversion was artists and the minute he would see one with pencil and paper in hand, off he would rush and disappear. Maida knew by experience that posing meant restraint.

Best Forecasters

History's best forecasters or predictors of the future are not necessarily the economists or statesmen or historians, but those observers who have in addition some prophetic insight into the workings of the moral law in history.

U. S. Interest in Hawaii

The United States has had a military and naval interest in Hawaii since 1883, when America received exclusive rights at Pearl harbor to establish a naval coaling base.

Shepherdess Hat for Spring

New York-Paris Fashions

Of sylvan shepherdess inspiration is this smart Spring hat, with a graceful sweep of the brim from front to back over the right side of the face. It is designed by Louisasanders of navy braided Cellophane cellulose film in keeping with the vogue for lustrous material. The edge of the brim is bound with grosgrain ribbon to match the hat braid and the bright field flowers used for trimming are made of feathers.

Nevada the Smallest

Nevada, boasting the famed city of Reno, is the smallest state in the Union in population. There are but 100,000 people in the entire state, which has an area of 110,000 square miles. Reno's population is 20,000.

Painting the Ocean

Marine artists say that the finest place in Europe to see mountainous ocean waves is at the wild tip of Denmark, Skagen, where the king has his summer home and a large group of artists gathers each summer.

Size of Sea Lion, Walrus

The adult male sea lion is about 11 to 12 feet long and weighs from 1,200 to 1,500 pounds. The walrus attains a length of about 10 feet, but a much greater weight, one and a half tons.

Icelandic Literature in Demand

The old Icelandic literature is part of the life of the nation, and more books are published in Icelandic in proportion to the few people speaking it than in any other language.

Malleable Iron

Malleable iron is cast iron made from a certain variety of pig iron and suitable for conversion into crude wrought iron after casting and without subsequent fusion.

Don't Know It All

"He who admits that he does not understand," said Ill Ho, the sage of Chinatown, "should be held in respect. He may be wiser than one who pretends to know everything."
