LETTERS from Our Readers

Editor Herald:—
You, like many Mercer county Democrats, are likely to feel a growing interest in the recent announcement carried by the press of the State, stating that Kentucky's greatest orator who is an ex-governor, ex-U. S. Senator and a brilliant speaker from western Kentucky and the young and brilliant John Young Brown, of the city of Lexington, will meet in joint debate throughout the Bluegrass state, beginning their speaking campaign sometime in June, probably about the middle.
Should Senator M. M. Logan, who now so ably represents Kentucky in the United States Senate, decide to take part in these debates, Kentuckians will have the opportunity of hearing three of her brilliant sons in joint discussion of the issues in which all Kentuckians should be interested, regardless of their political affiliations and crowds like those that gathered in the past to hear such men as John Griffin, Carlisle, J. C. W. Beckham, W. C. P. Breckinridge and many lesser lights will doubtless gather to hear these present day brilliant sons of which the state is more than proud.

Sincerely yours,
THOMAS P. REED.

"HARRODSBURG'S BUSY SPOT"

38TH TANK UNIT PRAISED BY DIVISION INSPECTOR

Stating that the 38th Tank Unit had the best set of non-commissioned officers of any unit he had ever inspected, Major John A. Kuable, 37th Division, Cincinnati, O., added other complimentary things about the Harrodsburg unit. Among other things he stated that the non-commissioned officers knew how to give instructions in a military manner, and he especially commended the size and bearing of the men in the unit. Major Kuable was here to make the inspection a few days ago and stopped at Beaumont Inn during his stay.
He said he was much interested in Harrodsburg, as he had heard much of the place. His assistant sergeant instructor, he stated, is Preston Parsons, of McAfee.

CENTURY-OLD MILEPOSTS

In the old days of stage coaches when the line to Nashville, Tenn., was marked by mileposts, one of these markers was in front of the Perry property on East Ninth street, corner of Campbell street. It was a stone slab about eighteen inches wide and six inches thick, with certain lettering on it now very indistinct. The old marker has been dug up recently, as some improvements are being made on that corner and is now lying near the gutter waiting to be hauled off. It has been a marker for at least 100 years.—Hopkinsville New Era

50 FINED IN METCALFE FOR NOT BUYING DOG TAGS

Circuit Court convened in Metcalfe county Monday with Judge Fulton presiding. It was "dog day" according to persons who attended court. Over five hundred Metcalfe citizens were indicted for not having a tag for their dog, which kept the court busy all day. Two hundred and fifty summons had been served on persons not having tags and 50 were convicted. They were fined $1 and costs which totaled $6.60 each. On the strength of the court's action 200 dog tags were sold at the sheriff's office in Edmonton during the day. This is fine for the sheep and stock claims.

POULTRY RAISERS SEE 301-EGG HEN

Three hundred and twenty-five men and women from eleven Kentucky and three Ohio counties at the recent 12th annual meeting at the Pyles poultry farm in Mason county saw a hen that laid 301 eggs in 51 weeks in the Michigan egg laying contest. Several hens with records of 250 eggs or more in Florida and Mississippi contests also were on exhibition.

DIONNE-QUINTUPLETS HAVE NEW EASTER FINERY

The Dionne quintuplets celebrated Easter Sunday as thousands of other young ladies—all dressed up in spring finery.
Dr. A. R. Defoe, their physician, said his little charges had whole new outfits—hats, coats, dresses, shoes, stockings.
Easter cards and gifts, including toy bunnies and chickens, arrived at the quintuplets' hospital home at Callander, Ont., from all parts of the United States and Canada.

PAINT HOUSE WHEN DRY

If you do any outside painting, be sure you wait for a dry spell. Paint put on damp wood will not hold. It is worse than a waste of good material to paint on such a surface. Not only will a good deal of the paint peel, but to repaint and make a good job of it the paint that has not peeled should be burned off, otherwise the edges of the peeled places will show.

DOGS BUTCHER 41 SHEEP

Lee Hill had 33 sheep killed by dogs Sunday night while dogs on the Baird Bros. farm killed eight Tuesday. One dog was killed by the Bairds but so far the others have not been caught, says the Stanford Interior Journal.
