Plaintiff

-v- Petition

Clark Winkler

Defendant

The Plaintiff says that the defendant is indebted to him in the sum of $119.94 for goods wares and merchandise sold furnished and delivered to to him at his special instance and request and for which he has contracted to pay but has failed to do so; that said sum is justly due and owing to him and is past due; that he believes he should have and recover said sull sum with interest and costs; that this is an action to recover said sum of $119.94 due on his contract and promise to pay the same; that the defendant hasnot sufficient property in this State subject to execution to make and pay said sum interest and costs and the collection thereof will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment and return of no property found.

Wherefore the Plaintiff prays judgment for $119.94 with interest and costs and a general order of attachment against his property. He prays for all proper relief.
