

Ralph Stine

HARRODSBURG — Services for Ralph Stine, 81, of Handy Pike will be 11 a.m. Saturday at Alexander & Royalty Funeral Home by the Rev. Jeanette Lucas and Guilford Waggener.

Stine

Burial will be in Spring Hill Cemetery.

He died Tuesday at Veterans Administration Medical Center in Lexington.

Born July 28, 1921, in Washington County, he was the son of the late Orville and Sadie Dean Stine. He served with the Kentucky National Guard Unit of Harrodsburg Co. D 192nd Tank Battalion, and in the Army during World War II. He had been a prisoner of war and received three Bronze Stars.

He was recognized in 1986 by the Mercer County Chamber of Commerce for his military service and was given a Pioneer of Harrodsburg Award. He was a retired Kentucky Utilities employee and a member of Burgin Baptist Church, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Disabled American Veterans and American Legion.

Survivors include two sons, Donnie Montgomery and Rodney Stine, both of Burgin; four brothers, Sam Stine of Burgin, Buddy Edmonson of Lawrenceburg, Gene Edmonson of Mercer County and Marion Edmonson of Versailles; a sister, Minnie L. Wilson of Danville; seven grandchildren; and 11 great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be Jeff Montgomery, Scott Shelton, Brad Murray, Joshua, Andrew, Tom and Eric Stine, and Joe Sanders.

Visitation will be 5-9 p.m. Friday and after 7 a.m. Saturday.

StineObit

Clipped By:

jopolony

Sat, Dec 3, 2016