

Mercer Quarterly Court.

Chas. A. Cravens, Plaintiff.

Vs: Amended Petition In Equity

Elisha Cheatham and
The Burley Tobacco Grower's
Co-operative Association

Defendants.

The plaintiff for amendment to his original petition herein adopting all the allegations thereof avers that the defendant; The Burley Tobacco Growers, is as the plaintiff is informed and believes, indebted to the defendant Elisha Cheatham for a balance due upon a crop of tobacco grown by the said defendant during the year 1925, upon lands in Boyle County, Kentucky owned and operated by A. E. Hundley & Son. The plaintiff does not know and can not state the exact amount of said indebtedness.

Wherefore, plaintiff now prays that the Burley Tobacco

Grower's Co-operative Association be summoned and required to answer

as garnishee herein, and be required to pay into Court any funds in its hands due or owing the above named defendant upto the amount of the plaintiff's demand and the costs of this action, and prays for costs and all proper relief.

Attorney

The affiant, F. V. McChesney states that he is the agent of the plaintiff, Chas. A. Cravens, who is now absent from Mercer County and that he is authorized to make this affidavit;

he says that the allegations of the foregoing petition are true as he verily believes.

Subscribed and sworn to before me by F. V. McChesney this 14th day 1928.
