

MERCER QUARTERLY COURT

THE MEEKER COMPANY

PLAINTIFF

VS. . PETITION

J. S. VAUGHT, JR.

DEFENDANT

The plaintiff, The Meeker Company, states that it is a corporation duly created and organized under the State of Missouri, with full power to sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with, and was such a corporation at all times mentioned herein.

It states that on or about the 18th day of August, 1927, and on or about the 8th day of November, 1927, it sold and delivered to the defendant on open account, goods wares and merchandise reasonably worth $63.17; that the defendant has promised and agreed to pay said sum but has failed and refused so to do, and that the said $63.17 is now long past due and wholly unpaid.

An itemized statement of said account and an affidavit verifying the same are filed herewith as parts hereof marked "A" and "B" respectively.

WHEREFORE the plaintiff prays judgment against the defendant in the sum of $63.17 with interest thereon from this date until paid, for the costs of this action, and for all proper relief.
