

The Cogar Grain Coal & Feed Co,

Plaintiff.

--VS-- Statement and Affidavit. $33,00.

Clarence Gibson & Simon Divine,

Defendant.

The plaintiff The Cogar Grain Coal & Feed Company is a corporation duly and legally incorporated under the laws of the State of Kentucky, with power to contract and be contracted with to be sued and be sued; it says that the defendants Clarence Gibson and Simon Divine are indebted to it in the sum of $33,00 for goodsmwares and mercahndise which the plaintiff furnished and delivered to the defendants at their special instance and request and for they promised and agreed to pay; they said that said claim is just, due and unpaid and no part of same has been paid and that they ought to recover said amount from the defendants with interest and costs; the plaintiff says that the defendants have no property in this State or not enough thereof to satisfy the demand of plaintiffs or of defendants creditors and that the collection of their claim will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment or a return of no property found.

Wherefore plaintiff prays judgment against the defendants for the sum of $33,00, with 6% interest thereon from the 5th, day of Jany, 1920, for a general order of attachment against the property of the defendants, for its costs and for whatever relief it may appear entitled to., and that John C. Horn be summoned as Garnishee herein.
