WORLD'S MIGHTIEST CIRCUS COMING SOON

Great Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Combined, with Pigmy Elephants and Pongurs From Africa. Col. Tim McCoy and Hundreds of New Foreign Features, Offers Epochal Program.

With the most impressive and brilliant seven-ring-and-stage program in its history, the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Combined Circus, which will exhibit in Lexington, Saturday, July 11 offers this season, as a sensational super-feature, a herd of African pigmy elephants, the first ever to set foot on this continent. These tiny tuskers are not babies, but full-grown, middle-aged midget elephants, the rarest animals on the face of the earth. Accompanying them is a herd of miniature African penguins, the world's smallest beasts of burden. The pigmy elephants have proven the greatest attraction the Big Show has ever placed before the public, not even excepting its presentations in the past of the disc-lipped Ubangis, the giraffe-necked women from Burma, the sacred white elephant of Siam, Jumbo, Tom Thumb, and Goliath, the sea elephant.

Among the scores of new features, to say nothing of the new importations from Europe and Asia, including the incredible Naitto troupe, the Royal Bokara troupe, the Imperial Viennese equestrian troupe, the great Frederico and a free running horse, pony and elephant liberty act of sixty members, is Col. Tim McCoy, the screen's most outstanding western star, at the head of his congress of rough riders of the world—Cowboys, cowgirls, vaqueros, Sioux and Blackfeet warriors and Australian bushrangers. Col. McCoy, plainsman, cavalry officer in the U. S. Army Reserve and friend of the Indian, is the idol of American boys and girls, and he will be seen in both the main performances and the wild west.

The Greatest Show on Earth heads into this territory on four long railroad trains of 100 cars, with 1600 people, 7 herds of full-sized elephant actors 1000 menagerie animals and 700 horses. Its tented city covers 14 acres of ground. There are 31 large tents, including the world's largest big top, seating 16,000 persons.

This is the peak season for youth and beauty among the 800 world famous arenic artists with the show. In the air, in the three rings, on the four stages and in the quarter-mile hippodrome track will be seen hundreds of pretty girls. In the 60-girl aerial ballet, the most beautiful mid-air display ever produced, there are beauties that evoke columns of newspaper comment wherever the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Combined Circus exhibits.

Preaching services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. B. T. U. 6:30.
Prayer meeting Wednesday 7 p. m.
Don't forget to come to Sunday school and church Sunday. Be on time so you can be numbered in the attendance.

T. G. Shelton, Pastor.

PIONEER PARK NOTES

(H. C. Wood, Curator)

One of Mrs. Green Johnson's guests at the Park on Sunday, was Mrs. Charles Smith, of Owensboro, whose great-grandmother was Ann McGinty, of Fort Harrod fame. Mrs. Smith was formerly Miss Nancy Owens.

A large number of people from various parts of the country visited the Pioneer Memorial State Park on last Sunday. Among them was a truck load of people from Paint Lick. When it departed a small boy, who had been enamoured by the wonderful gun collection in the Museum, was left behind. The fact was not discovered until the truck was well on its way and the small boy was wondering how he was to eliminate the many miles that lay between him and the beloved spot called home. However, the truck finally returned in search of the missing one, and the small boy went joyfully on his way.

Many states were represented at the Park on last Sunday. Ohio, Illinois, Missouri, Texas, Indiana, New York, Michigan, Oklahoma, and one guest was from Cuba.

Mr. John Hutchison, of Lexington, brought the wife of his cousin, Mr. John Kelly, of Portland, Oregon.

Mr. Geo. M. Long, Ashland, Ohio, a Park visitor, lives in vicinity of the monument erected to commemorate the wholesale slaughter of the Capas family by the Indians in early days during the settlement of Ohio.

A visitor from one of the Northern states made her first trip to Kentucky to see the famous blue-grass region of which she had heard so much. Alas! the weather man had converted most of it into a brown and arid tract. The hot sun has turned most of the grass into hay.

Of recent guests I may mention Mr. Ralf Goddard, who gave our little city its public drinking fountain in Court House Square. Mr. Goddard made a flying visit, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Howard Owen, of Kansas City. He is on his way to New York City where he will take passage on the Majestic Normandie for an indefinite trip abroad, along with his son and Dr. Sam Grubbs, another former Harrodsburg boy.

Among recent visitors to the Park and Mansion were Mrs. Rebecca Cunningham, Mrs. Edgar Reed with her two nieces, also Mr. Melvin C. Sorrell with his nephew, Edgar K. Hughes now living in Montgomery, Ala.
