

DEATHS

CONNOR

Mrs. Alice Wright Connor died at her home at Kirkwood, Thursday, June 18. She is survived by her husband, Paul Connor; one son, Cecil Connor; a grandson, J. P. Connor; two nieces, Mrs. B. F. Edwards, of Harrodsburg and Mrs. J. L. Overstreet, of Anderson county; a nephew, Jesse Daily, of Kirkwood, and a host of sorrowing friends.

For many months she had been ill and suffered greatly, but she was always patient and cheerful and gladly welcomed the many friends who visited her bedside. She was a member of the Kirkwood Baptist church and attended services regularly as long as she was able.

Funeral services were conducted at the church at Kirkwood by her pastor, the Rev. E. M. Gash, after which her body was laid to rest in Kirkwood cemetery.

ROBERTSON

Mrs. Sallie Summers Robertson, 86, died Tuesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. C. Barlow, Georgetown, after an illness of several months. Mrs. Robertson was the widow of the late D. W. Robertson, a minister in the M. E. Church, South, and was well known to many in Harrodsburg.

She is survived by her daughters, Mrs. Barlow and Mrs. C. L. Bohon, Burnside; five grandsons, Miles Baldwin, Terre Haute, Ind., James and Bob Baldwin, Shelbyville; Billy Bohon, New Orleans, and Edwin Barlow, of Owensboro; and one great grandson.

Funeral services Thursday afternoon in the Methodist church in Georgetown. The Rev. E. M. Fossett, pastor of the church, officiating, assisted by the Rev. F. K. Struve and the Rev. J. P. Strother. Burial in the Georgetown cemetery.

CAREY

Frank Edwin Carey, 18 years old, died at the A. D. Price Memorial Hospital Monday, June 26, 1936 of peritonitis. The lad had suffered several days with pain in his side, which he did not think serious, but as it persisted he consulted a doctor Thursday night and an emergency operation had to be performed. It was found his appendix had ruptured. He was a fine young man, the son of Andy and Laura Tyler Carey, who reside on the Chatham road, and was associated with his father in farming. He is survived by his parents, two sisters, Mrs. Grover Peavler and Mr. Virgil Halp, two brothers, Herbert and William Carey, all of Mercer county.

The funeral was at 2:30 Tuesday and burial in the church cemetery. The service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. D. McClung. The bearers were B. H. Russell, C. G. Devine, Raymond Herman and Orlando Wells and Charles Ross.

GRIGSBY

Funeral services were conducted here Tuesday afternoon for Jack Grigsby, 42 years old who was found dead in his room in Louisville Sunday morning, June 21, 1936, the victim of a heart attack. He was a native of Harrodsburg, the son of John W. and the late Lillie Lung Grigsby, and had been in business in Louisville for some years.

Mr. Grigsby is survived by his father, four brothers: Charles, Bascom, John Jr., and James all of Harrodsburg; and six sisters: Miss Beulah Grigsby, and Mrs. Lewis, of Harrodsburg, Mrs. M. I. Duell, Mrs. Ernest Rolling, Miss Fannie Grigsby, all of Louisville, and Mrs. George Piper, of Jessamine county.

The funeral was at the home of his sister, Mrs. E. S. Lewis, and Mr. Lewis, Chestnut street, conducted by the Rev. G. Whitcomb Ellers, of the Baptist church. Burial was in Spring Hill cemetery.

Pallbearers were John H. Adams, Loman Watts, Tom Squifflett, Glave Vivion, Ernest Prewitt and Garnett Dean.

McCOMAS

Mrs. Sally Holmes McComas, widow of Henry C. McComas, died Sunday, June 21, at her home in Lexington, following a long illness. Mrs. McComas was born in Harrodsburg, the daughter of Joseph and Judy Gray Holmes. She had resided in Lexington for the last sixty years.

She is survived by a son, W. G. McComas, Nashville, Tenn.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday at the W. R. Milward Mortuary Chapel. Burial in the Lexington Cemetery. Relatives from here attending the service were John P. Williams, Mrs. T. H. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Gordon.

SEXTON

Miss Clara Belle Sexton, 18 years old, died about 6 o'clock, Friday evening, June 19, 1936, the end coming after a short illness. She was the daughter of George and Julia Jenkins Sexton and was born in Mercer county. She is survived by her parents; four brothers, George, Charles, Dan, and Kenneth, one sister, Mary Rose Sexton, her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Sexton and Mrs. James Jenkins.

The funeral was at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Harrodsburg Baptist church, conducted by Rev. G. W. Ellers, pastor. Burial was in Spring Hill cemetery.

The pall bearers were Orville C. and Ollie Parrott, William Sexton, Lloyd, Robert, and Lucien Jenkins. The flower girls were Misses Mary, Elizabeth and Martha Noel, Sarah and Viola Sexton, Emily and Loraine Jenkins.

Foster-Graham

Marriage

The marriage of Miss Mildred Foster and Mr. Royal Graham was quietly solemnized Thursday at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. D. H. Friend, and Mrs. Friend, at Deerwood Place, Louisville. The bride was becomingly gowned in a sky blue chiffon dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds and baby's breath. Her going away suit was white flannel with pink lace blouse. Mrs. Graham is the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Foster, Cornishville road. Mr. Graham is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Graham, of Washington county, and is a prominent young teacher since his graduation from Eastern State College, Richmond. They left on a short motor trip North and on their return will be with the bride's parents and at home to their friends about the middle of July.

Carr-Young

Marriage

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Carr announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Josephine Carr, to Mr. James Preston Young, of Lexington, which took place Saturday evening, June 6, at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. W. J. Shelburn, Versailles. The bride's only attendant was Mrs. J. T. Bryant, Jr., of Lexington, and Mr. Bryant was Mr. Young's best man. The bride was lovely in white crepe with British tan trimmings and accessories. Mrs. Bryant wore a pink suit with aqua and white accessories. The bride was an honor graduate from the Harrodsburg high school and a graduate from the nurses training school at the Good Samaritan Hospital, Lexington. Mr. Young attended Transylvania College. On their return from a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Young took up their residence at the Dunn apartment house on South Limestone street, Lexington.

Return From

Beautiful Wedding

The following returned Tuesday from Cincinnati where they attended the beautiful wedding of Miss Neil Atkins and Mr. William Charles Hagemeyer which was solemnized Monday evening at the Walnut Hills Christian church: Mr. N. L. Curry, Mr. D. J. Curry, Mrs. LaDon Riker, Mrs. J. Hal Grimes, Mrs. Charles Riker, Miss Lillie Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Douglass Curry. Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Curry remained to visit their daughter, Mrs. C. E. Ford and Mr. Ford.

Mrs. Hagemeyer, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pearce Atkins, was lovely for the ceremony in her mother's wedding gown of ivory satin and rose point lace, with tulle veil. She wore as her only ornament a string of handsome pearls, the gift of Mr. Hagemeyer. She was given in marriage by her father, who also assisted Rev. J. J. Castleberry in the service. Miss Dorothy Atkins, her sister's maid of honor, wore golden dawn chiffon and carried summer flowers while the four bridesmaids were gowned in yellow chiffon and carried loose arm bouquets of delphinium and golden marguerites. They were Mrs. Howard Adams, Jr., Baltimore; Mrs. James Dolbey, Mrs. Russell Moody, Muncie, Ind., and Miss Elizabeth Hagemeyer, sister of the bridegroom. Mr. Harold Best, Philadelphia, was Mr. Hagemeyer's best man, and the groomsmen were Messrs. George Kenneth McKee, H. Pearce Atkins, Jr., J. Wayne Franklin and Henry Roeder, Detroit. The church was lavishly and artistically decorated with white gladioli, larkspur and lilies, smilax, palms and ferns, and lighted with tall candles. Mrs. Grimes, who had played the wedding march at the marriage of the bride's parents in Harrodsburg, presided at the organ.

Immediately after the ceremony a beautiful reception was given by the bride's parents at their home, several hundred guests being present. After returning from their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Hagemeyer will go to housekeeping in their handsome new home, Inwood Place, Clifton.
