

Defendant.

The plaintiff O.L.Sallee says that the defendant Marion Pinkston is indebted to him in the sum of $72.50 for goods and merchandise furnished the defendant by the plaintiff at the special instance and request of the defendant; he says that said account is just due and unpaid and that he believes he should recover said amount from the defendant with interests and cost of this action.

He says that the defendant has not property in this State or not enough thereof to satisfy plaintiff's demand and that the collection of same will be endangered by a delay in obtaining judgment or a return of no property found.
