

from Issory note to this plaintiff, by which 60 days after said date they promised to pay to them, the sum of $50. with interest thereon at 8% from date until paid. They state that said note was negotiable and payable at the First National Bank at Harrodsburg, Ky.; that on said date it was presented for payment and payment was refused by the defendants. They state that said note is long since past due and no part thereof has been paid. Said note is filed herewith as a part hereof marked "C" for identity. The plaintiffs state that upon the refusal of the defendants to pay said note, it was duly protested before W.C. Rue a Notary Public and the costs and fees of said protest amounted to $2.54. They state that by reason of the refusal of the defendants to pay said note, they are indebted to the plaintiff for the amount of the protest fee. Said notice of protest as filed herewith as a part hereof, marked "D" for identity.

The plaintiffs reaffirming the allegations of the first and second paragraphs and for further and other causes of action against the defendants herein state that on the 10th of April, 1915, the defendant Britton Music Co. and B. H. Britton executed and delivered to them their certain promissory note by the terms of which, 30 days after date they promised to pay to the order of these plaintiffs, the sum of $50. with interest thereon at the rate of 8% per annum. They state that said note is negotiable and payable at the First National Bank of Harrodsburg, Ky. They state that the said note was presented for payment and payment thereof was refused by them. They state that said note is long since past due and that no part of same has been paid. The note is filed herewith as a part hereof marked "E" for identity. They state that upon the refusal of the defendant to pay said note it was duly protested and by reason of the refusal, the defendants are indebted to them for the amount of the protest fee $2.54.

Paragraph 3.

The plaintiffs reaffirming the allegations of the first and second paragraphs and for further and other causes of action against the defendants herein state that on the 10th of April, 1915, the defendant Britton Music Co. and B. H. Britton executed and delivered to them their certain promissory note by the terms of which, 30 days after date they promised to pay to them, the sum of $50. with interest thereon at 8% from date until paid. They state that said note was negotiable and payable at the First National Bank at Harrodsburg, Ky.; that on said date it was presented for payment and payment was refused by the defendants. They state that said note is long since past due and no part thereof has been paid. Said note is filed herewith as a part hereof marked "C" for identity. The plaintiffs state that upon the refusal of the defendants to pay said note, it was duly protested before W.C. Rue a Notary Public and the costs and fees of said protest amounted to $2.54. They state that by reason of the refusal of the defendants to pay said note, they are indebted to the plaintiff for the amount of the protest fee. Said notice of protest as filed herewith as a part hereof, marked "D" for identity.