

Attorney for Plaintiff

to which they may appear to be entitled.

order of attachment of defendant's property and for all other relief dant in the sum of $9.45 for costs of this action and for a general

Wherefore plaintiff pray for judgment against defend-property found.

will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment and return of no

to satisfy and pay said indebtedness and the collection of the demand

no property in this state subject to execution, not enough thereof money for groceries furnished her at her request; that defendant has paid; that this is an action upon a contract being a contract to pay

Plaintiff state that said account is just due and unsaid account is past due and unpaid.

furnished her at her request for which she promised to pay; that

Effie Gilpin is indebted to them in the sum of $9.45 for groceries

Ransdell & Son, state that the defendant

Defendant

Ransdell & Son,

Plaintiffs

Petition

VS

Effie Gilpin

Defendant

1925. Sept 25

Filed.

B. C. Allin

By

Ransdell & Son,

Mercer Quarterly Court