Ransdell & Son,

Plaintiffs

VS Statement

D. Moore,

Defendant

Plaintiffs, Ransdell & Son, state that the defendant, D. Moore is indebted to them in the sum of $7.70 on account; that said amount is past due and unpaid.

Plaintiffs state that this is an action upon a contract being a contract to pay money on account; that said account is just; that defendant has no property in this state subject to execution or not enough thereof to satisfy and pay said indebtedness and the collection of the demand will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment and return of no property found.

Wherefore plaintiffs pray for judgment against defendant for the sum of $7.70; for costs of this action and for a general order of attachment of defendant's property and plaintiffs pray for all other relief to which they may appear to be entitled.
