Ransdell & Son,

VS

D. Moore,

or not enough thereof to satisfy and pay said indebtedness and the collection of the demand will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment and return of no property found. Wherefore plaintiffs pray for judgments against defendant for the sum of $7.70: for costs of this action and for a general order of attachment of defendant's property and plaintiffs pray for all other relief to which they may appear to be entitled.

Attorney for Plaintiffs of the foregoing petition are true to the best of his knowledge and belief.

Subscribed and sworn to before me by John Ransdell this the 2nd day of September 1925.
