

The affiant, William Bailey, states that Willard Freeman, is a delinquent, neglected and incorrigible infant and under the age of seventeen years; that the above named infant associates himself with others who are growing up in idleness or crime.

He states that it is for the best interest of the said infant that a hearing or inquiry ~~be~~ into the actions and conduct of this infant be held and that it be determined by this Honorable Court what course ~~xxxxxx~~ or action will be for the best interest of this infant and such course or action be carried into effect by this Court.
