

Mercer Quarterly Court

W. R. McRay and J. J. Yates partners doing business as McRay & Yates

Plffs

-v- Petition

Mrs. George Sharp, G. M. Sharp

Defts

The Plaintiffs state that on March 12, 1920 the defendants by their joint promissory note of that date duly executed and delivered to them which is filed herewith agreed and promised to pay them eight months thereafter $197.50; that said sum is past due and unpaid; that it is just and they believe they should have and recover the full sum of said note interest and costs that this is an action to recover the amount of said note and contract; that neither of the defendants have any property in this state subject to execution or not sufficient thereof to make and satisfy said note and the collection thereof will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment and return of no property found.

Wherefore they pray judgment for $197.50 with 6% interest from Mch 12, 1920 for their costs and for general order of attachment against the defendants and for all proper relief.

C. Hankin
Atty for Plff

Affiant, J.J. Yates one of the plaintiffs says the statements of the foregoing petition are true.

J. J. Yates
Subscribed and sworn to before me by J. J. Yates, April 28, 1925

C. Hankin
Exr M.C.C.