Dft-

The plaintiff. H.S.Mathis by Jerry Tewmney, agent, says that on the 12th day of October 1923, the defendant executed and delivered to H.S.Mathis, plaintiff herein, his two certain promissory notes each for ~~25~~$25.00 and due the first one on the first day of June 1924, and the second one due July first 1924- He says that both notes are due and unpaid though payment has been repeatedly demanded but refused-

He says that ~~plaintiff~~ defendant has no property in this State subject to execution or not enough thereof to satisfy plaintiff's demand and that the collection of the demand will be endangered by delay in obtaining a judgment and a return of no property found to satisfy same-

Wherefore plaintiff prays for a judgment against the defendant in the sum of $50.00 and interest from this date and all the costs of this action and for a general order of attachment against the property of the defendant including a summons as garnishee against the Henry Clay Fire Insurance Company of Lexington, Ky- He prays for all relief to which he is entitled- Witness
