

Meycer Quarterly Court

William T.Champion

Plaintiff

vs.

Affidavit for attachment

Hugh Dean

Defendant

Plaintiff, William T.Champion, says that his claim in this action is for the value of merchandise sold and delivered by him to Defendant Hugh Dean; that said claim is just; that he believes to recover thereon $ 18.71 and his cost herein expended he states the defendant has not enough property in Kentucky subject to execution to satisfy Plaintiff's demand, and that the collection thereof will be endangered by delay in obtaining a judgment or return of no property found.
