Rail Pioneer Denounced

The opposition to George Stephenson, pioneer locomotive builder, seems nowadays unbelievable. He was denounced as a fool and a fraud, and even his own friends and company directors urged him to be modest in his statements as to what his proposed locomotive engine would be capable of doing.

Knights Proved Devotion

In days of knighthood, when the greatest prize set before the knight was to become the chosen object of female approval and approbation, the ladies, on some occasions, led the several combatants in chains as an emblem of the knights being their devoted slaves.

The Life We Lead

Never say, "It is nobody's business but my own what I do with my life." It is not true. Your life is put into your hands as a trust for many others beside yourself. If you use it well, it will make many others happy; if you abuse it, it will harm many others beside yourself.

Forty Thousand Rocks

The Giants Causeway, near Portrush in Ireland, is a group of over 40,000 columnar rocks. In form the columns are irregular polygons with a range from three to nine sides, the majority being six-sided. They vary in height from a few inches to eighty feet.

Perfection Through Adversity

Our experiences of adversity—disappointment, illness, sorrow, bereavement—are but the stepping stones on which we rise to the divine ideal of the perfect man and woman.

Sundew Plant Defense

The tentacle of the sundew plant turn and pin down the unfortunate insect which alights on it.

Size of Hyde Park

Hyde Park in London, with the adjoining Kensington Gardens, covers 530 acres.

COMBINATION AUTO-PLANE

IS FLOWN TO WASHINGTON

A tiny airplane which can fold its wings and scoot along the highway at 25 miles-an-hour like an automobile, whirled down to an almost vertical landing Saturday on a small, grassy plot in downtown Washington.

The plane, an autogiro, developed by a Philadelphia concern, was "set down" in an acre-and-a-half park on Pennsylvania avenue, adjoining the huge Commerce department building.

The area of irrigated land in Asia is nearly five times that in North America.

COLT SHOW AT SECHREST

FARM NEAR WILLISBURG

A colt show will be held at the farm of Raymond Sechrest on Saturday, October 10th. This is an annual affair which Mr. Sechrest has held for owners of colts by his Percheron Stallion, Silver Mark. W. S. Anderson, of the University of Kentucky will judge the colts and award premiums on horse and mare colts.

Mr. Anderson, who is at the head of the horse department at the University, will discuss practical problems of breeding, rearing and judging colts. Farmers interested in improving or raising their work stock, are urged to attend the show.

Administrator's Sale!

Thursday, October 29th, 1936

9:30 A. M.

In order to settle the estate of Gold Patterson, deceased, I will on above date, on the premises 8 miles from Harrodsburg; 2 miles from McAfee on the Talmage pike, sell at public auction—Fine river bottom farm consisting of 174 acres, 70 acres of permanent bluegrass, 45 acres in wheat, remainder in young grass.

IMPROVEMENTS—Large house, good stock and tobacco barn, out-buildings all in first class condition, no money to spend. Farm ready for punching.

Farm No. 2—Known as the Dan Yeast farm consisting of 54 acres, on the Jackson pike. A real set of improvements, all in fine condition. Both farms water never runs out. This farm all in grass except 10 acres and that sown in wheat. All we ask is inspection. The best body of land that has been offered to the public in years. There are many things to say about these farms, but take a look and be convinced.

At same time and place will sell household goods. Namely, bed and bedding, cook stove, new heatrola and everything that goes with a well furnished home.

LIVESTOCK—65 head 2 and 3 year old native sheep; 4 milk cows, hogs. Farming implements, corn, hay, baled straw, auto, cane and fodder and many other things too numerous to mention.

TERMS—On real estate 10% cash or bond on day of sale to show good faith; 40% when deed is made which will be on January 1st, 1937. Balance three equal payments, 1, 2 and 3 years from January 1, 1937. Possession Jan. 1st 1937. 1936 taxes will be paid by present owner. Pro-rata insurance. Personal property—all sums under $25.00 cash in hand; $25.00 and over credit 4 months with interest, good note well secured. For further information see Dan Yeast on farm or W. P. Hatchett, city.
