AFFIDAVIT

Homer Cinnamon, & Cecil Ransdell,

Defendant.

The affiant, Charles T. Patterson, states that he is one of the firm or partnership of D. H. Patterson, composed of D. H. Patterson and this affiant, doing business as partnership as aforesaid.

He states that the defendant, Homer Cinnamon, is justly and truly indebted to the said partnership in the sum of $31.91, money due for goods wares and merchandise sold and delivered by the plaintiffs to said defendant, at said defendant's instance and request, that the said claim is just and as he believes the plaintiffs ought to recover thereon the said sum ~~with~~ of $31.91 with interest thereon from January 1, 1918, that the said defendant, Homer Cinnamon, has no property in this State subject to execution, or not enough thereof to satisfy the plaintiff's demand, and the collection of the demand will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment or a return of no property found. But that the defendant, Cecil Ransdell, as he is informed and believes and so states and charges the same to be true, is indebted to the said defendant in a sum greater than sufficient to pay the plaintiffs' debt, interest and cost.
