G-Men Capture 102
Moonshine Stills,
Setting New Mark

Federal agents of the Alcohol Tax Unit during September broke by wide margins records for still seizures both in Kentucky and in the Kentucky-Tennessee district, reports completed Monday in the offices of Howard B. Taylor, district supervisor, and W. H. Kinnard, Kentucky supervisor, show.

The all-time high record of seventy-two still seizures in one month, chalked up by the Kentucky investigators during August, was rubbed out in favor of a record of 102 seizures during September. The Kentucky-Tennessee record of 136 seizures was beaten by the 211 seizures during September. There were 130 arrests in Kentucky and 278 in the district.

HARNESS THIEVES ACTIVE

One morning recently when it was time to start things moving for the day on the farm of Wash McCubbin, north of town, it was found that one team would be idle for a time, as two sets of heavy harness had been stolen the night previous. Mr. McCubbin had been in his gear room late the afternoon before and noticed that the harness was in its accustomed place then.

It seems that harness disappearing is becoming quite a fad, as Mr. Doc Castleman, who resides about four miles from Mr. McCubbin's, also had some harness stolen about two weeks ago.—Hodgenville Herald News.

JOB HUNTER DROPS DEAD
AFTER GETTING POSITION

Mrs. Mary Ibos, 21-year-old mother, Cleveland, Ohio, had her own mother to support. Her husband hadn't been home for three months. She hunted weary for a job during that time. She was excited and jubilant last week because the state highway department told her to come to work Tuesday. A moment later she toppled over, dead.
