

Mercer Quarterly Court

J. W. Freeman

Plaintiff

Vs.

Statement and affidavit

William McGinnis,

Defendant.

To account $ 25.00

Plaintiff states that his claim is just, due and owing and that he ought to recover of the defendant the sum of $25.00 ~~for~~ ^{state} ~~xx~~. That the defendant has no property in this ~~state~~ subject to execution or not enough thereof to satisfy plaintiff's demand and that collection of said demand will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment or a return of no property found; that the defendant is employed by the Brooks-Galloway Company and that said company is indebted to defendant.

Wherefore he prays judgment against defendant in the sum of $25.00, for his costs herein and that the Brooks-Galloway Company be summoned as garnishee and required to pay into what sum it is indebted to defendant or enough thereof to satisfy plaintiff's demand and costs.
