The Mrs. Hallie ~~H~~ilton, says that the property described by her in this action is a ewe and lamb; ewe, white, about 2 or 3 years old, a little wool off of the side of said sheep; lamb, brown, about 3 months old, and said sheep and lamb are of the reasonable value of $25.00. She says that they were not taken under an order or judgment of a court against her or for a tax or a fine nor under an execution, attachment, distress, or fee bill; that they are being wrongfully detained and plaintiff is entitled to immediate possession thereof- If said possession can not be had she is entitled to $25.00 the reasonable value of said sheep- She prays for an order of delivery for said sheep-
