Sales Stay Heavy On Flue-Cured Leaf
RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 31 (AP) —Sales continued fairly heavy on the flue-cured tobacco markets in the wake of a strong demand for all types of leaf. Prices advanced. The Federal-State Market News service reported that yesterday's general quality was the best of the season. Old belt centers noted an especially strong demand for lower qualities, and most of the grades registered $1 advances over Monday's quotations. Up $3 to $4 per hundred pounds were
