George Spaulding and Mrs.

Defendant.

George Spaulding,

The plaintiff T.C.Scott, states that the defendants Geo Spaulding and Mrs. George Spaulding are indebted to him in the sum of $20. for goods, wares and merchandise which the plaintiff sold and delivered to defendants at their special instance and request and for which they promised and agreed to pay; he says that said account is just, due and unpaid and of same has ever been paid and that within the last year the defendants promised and agreed to pay same but have failed to do so; he says that he believes he should recover said amount from the defendants with interest and he files herewith as a part hereof an itemized statement of said merchandise sold to the defendants; he says that the defendants have no in this State subject to execution or not enough thereof to satisfy the of plaintiffs and demands of defendants creditors and that the collection claim will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment or a return of property found.

Wherefore he prays judgment against the defendants for the said sum with interest thereon from the 31st, day of January, 1920, till paid, for order of attachment against the property of the defendants, for his cost for whatever relief he may appear entitled to.
