

State of Kentucky,
Sct.
County of Mercer,

The affiant, Dewey Reed, states that he has reasonable grounds to believe and that he does believe that there is now being held by E. L. Gaines on or about the property used as a residence ~~xxxxxx~~ by the said E. L. Gaines, three pigs belonging to this affiant; that the grounds on which he bases his belief is as follows:

That on February 6th 1931 this affiant, while returning from a visit to his brother-in-law, E. B. Sanders, near Tarrapin in Mercer County, Kentucky, ~~xx xxxx~~ stopped at the property occupied by the said E. L. Gaines and saw in the barn of the said E. L. Gaines or the barn on the property occupied by the said Gaines, the said three pigs; that the said pigs are the property of this affiant and are described as follows: Three small solid white pigs weighing between 25 and 35 pounds or thereabout and being about three months old.

~~xxxxxx~~ The property occupied by the said E. L. Gaines is described as follows: Lying in Mercer County Kentucky, it being a one story frame house and lying and being near Tarrapin, Mercer County, Ky. and bounded ~~xxx xx~~ on the North by ~~xxx~~ and ~~xxx~~ by ~~xxx~~ by the Dugansville and VanArsdall turnpike; on the ~~xxx~~ East by the Dugansville and Talmadge turnpike; on the South by P. H. Robinson property and on the West by John W. Newby and is known as the John Y. Divine property or place.

Subscribed and sworn to before me by Dewey Reed, this the 7th day February 1931.

Dewey Reed.
John VanArsdall. Judge
Mercer County Court.