

MERCER QUARTERLY COURT.

FALLS CITY PLUMBING CO.,

PLAINTIFF.

versus

DEPOSITION.

CREED L.TAYLOR,

DEFENDANT.

The deposition of Miss Jennis Matthews taken on the 11th day of December, 1915, at the time and place and for the purpose stated in the notice hereunto annexed, to be read in behalf of plaintiff in the trial of the foregoing action. Miss Matthews being duly sworn deposeth and says:

Q.-a State your name, residence and business, please?

A.-a Jennis Matthews, Louisville, Ky., bookkeeper Falls City Plumbing Supply Co.

Q.-b State how long you have held this position?

A.-b Ten years.

Q.-c What are your duties as such bookkeeper?

A.-c Have charge of the books, making records of all the accounts due the Company and the records of sales it makes.

Q.-d State whether or not your position gives you a knowledge of the accounts due your Company from various parties?

A.-d It does.

Q.-e State whether or not the books of your Company show an account due it from Creed L.Taylor, of Harrodsburg, Ky.?

A.-e They do.

Q.-f Please state the amount of Mr.Taylor's account with your Company?

A.-f Nineteen 50/100 Dollars, ($19.50).

Q.-g Can you tell us, Miss Matthews, how this item arose?

A.-g Since March, 1914 to date we have sold Mr.Taylor numerous bills of goods and he has made us various payments with which he has been credited in addition to some goods returned, discount, and the like.

In all cases we have allowed him all the credits to which he has been