

Mercer Quarterly Court

Minor Ransdall,

Plaintiff

Vs.            Petition

Burnett & Mahan, a partnership composed of Dr. Burnett and J. Mahan and doing business under above styled name & Worley Graham,

Defendants

The Plaintiff, Minor Ransdall states that the defendants, Dr. Burnett and J. Mahan are indebted to him in the sum of $20.00 ; that said amount represents the value of a service battery which this plaintiff had obtained from the Ingram Buick Garage and was using the same on a Ford Car belonging to these defendants then in the possession of this plaintiff; that the said Worley Graham, agent of the defendants at the time of taking the said Ford car from this plaintiff failed and refused to restore said battery to this plaintiff but on the contrary allowed said battery to remain on said Ford.

Plaintiff further states that the defendants Burnett and Mahan agreed and promised this plaintiff that they would pay for said battery but have failed to do so altho demand has been made upon them for payment.

Premises considered plaintiff prays judgments against the defendants for the sum of $20.00 ; for costs of this suit and for all proper relief.

Attorney for Plaintiff

