

Mercer Quarterly Court

Minor Ransdall,

Plaintiff

V- Amended Petition

Burnett & Mahan &
Worley Graham, Agent

Defendants

Plaintiff, Minor Ransdall, amending his petition states that the defendants are further indebted to him in the sum of $12.50; that said amount is reasonable value of a motor meter which the defendants, Burnett & Mahan by and through their agent, Worley Graham promised and agreed to furnish to this plaintiff at the time of his purchase of them of one Dodge Touring Car.

Plaintiff states that said amount is the reasonable value of the motor meter which the said defendants promised and agreed to furnish to this plaintiff and the demand has been made upon defendants to furnish and supply said motor meter they have failed and refused to furnish said motor meter .

Wherefore Plaintiff prays as in his first petition and for the further sum of $12.50 etc.
