

Mercer Quarterly Court.

G.L.Pinkston,

Plff.

Vs.

Judgment.

J.T.Scott,

Dft.

This case coming on for trial and being submitted to the court upon the pleadings and the proof and arguments of counsel and the court being sufficiently advised is of the opinion that the plaintiff is entitled to a part of the relief sought. It is therefore adjudged that the defendant, J.T.Scott, deliver to the plaintiff a small quantity of onions offered by defendant to the plaintiff, and which were in court at time of judgment and supposed to be about 30 pounds of potatoes<sup>by way of compromise</sup> onions and that the defendant, J.T.Scott, be further adjudged to pay all the costs of this action.

---