Cad Huffman,

Plff. . Jm 1775 and

Vs.

Affidavit.

Jim Ross,

Dft.

The ~~plaintiff~~ Cad Huffman, states that the defendant, Jim Ross, is indebted to him in the sum of $9.90 for goods and merchandise sold and delivered to him at his special instance and request: that said amount is due and unpaid and that it is just and no offset, or discount, exists against said debt and that there is no usury embraced therein.

He states that the defendant has no property in this State subject to execution, or not enough thereof to satisfy plaintiff's claim or the claims of the defendant's creditors, and that the collection of said demand will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment and a return of no property. Wherefore he prays judgment for said amount, for a general order of attachment against the property of the defendant and that the J. L. Faulkner Co. be summoned as garnishee in this action. He prays for all relief to which he is may appear to be entitled.
