

Affidavit.

The affiant, Rena League, states that she has reasonable grounds to believe and that she does believe that Homer Guinn has committed a breach of the peace in Mercer County, Ky. on or about the 22nd day of September, 1918, and that said offense was committed in the manner and form as follows, Viz:

The said Homer Guinn cursed and abused this affiant, Rena League, and assaulted her by jerking a gate out of her hand and by calling her vile names and accusing her of immoral conduct with other men and by being drunk and disorderly and by catching hold of the said Rena League and trying to force her to go church with him and by misconduct generally.
