LIBRARY NOTES

THE SOUTH NEEDS BOOKS

(Courier-Journal Editorial)

Second only to the public schools themselves, the public libraries of the United States are the most valuable educational agency provided by a combination of public funds and private beneficence, and since the South is notoriously deficient in both these fundamental activities, the publication, Libraries of the South, just issued by the American Library Association, contains much significant information.

The book is a report of the regional field agent for the South, Miss Tommie Dora Barker, appointed in 1930 by the American Library Association, under a grant from the Carnegie Corporation of New York to survey the field and endeavor to lay the foundations for unifying library extension efforts. The painstaking report should have the effect of stimulating these efforts and giving helpful direction thereto.

It is obvious that the South needs books, when it is comprehended that nearly 22,000,000 persons, or 68 per cent of the population, are without access to public libraries, and of these 19,800,000 live in rural areas. There are less than 8,000,000 volumes in the South's libraries, which is only .2 per capita. In Kentucky, only 977,477 of its 2,614,589 people live within service area of its sixty-four public libraries.

Libraries provide an opportunity for adult education and a valuable adjunct to the improvement of educational efforts which must follow the South's economic renaissance, now in its beginning.

Members of the Youth's Christian Temperance Union heard an excellent address by Attorney Charles W. Bell, at the meeting of the organization last week. Mrs. Charles Matherly outlined plans for the future work of the group. Miss Sarah Coleman was also on the program. It was announced that during the summer J. V. Case will serve as president. New officers will be elected in September.

PARENTS TRY TO LOCATE SON, GONE SINCE MAY 4

Seeking to locate their son, Elmer, thirteen years old, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tussey, Harrodsburg, Route 5, appealed to County Judge Charles T. Corn, Chief of Police S. K. Daugherty and sent out broadcasts Monday. The boy disappeared May 4 from the home of his aunt, Mrs. Goebel Tussey and Mr. Tussey, near Richmond in Madison county. He told his relatives that he was going to join Rice's circus. Nothing has been heard from him since he left and all efforts to trace him have failed.

The boy's father, a day laborer, has had employment in Garrard, Bourbon and Madison counties for some years. Recently he obtained a place with A. J. True, Mercer county farmer. When his wife and family left Madison to join him, Elmer preferred to remain with his kinspeople and continue his odd jobs for a neighbor.

His distressed mother described him as having light hair, blue eyes, about five feet tall and weight about 115 pounds. She begs anyone who can give her information of the boy to write to her.

POLICE COURT

Willie Jones, negro, charged with stealing chickens, was released on $100 bond and his case held over for the October Grand Jury by Judge Patterson at the police court Monday night. Jones had been in the penitentiary twice before and had just finished a probation period.

Other cases disposed of were: Davis Curd, negro, accused of stealing some batteries was sentenced to thirty days in jail.

Lee Anderson was fined $10 and costs on a drunkenness charge.

Luther McDonley was fined $10 and costs on same charge.

The case of Marvin Noel, charged with drunken driving, was continued until next Monday's session.
