R.E. Youmans,

Plaintiff

V- Statement & Affidavit

Howard Combs,

Defendant

Plaintiff, R.E. Youmans, says that he is a practicing physician of this city; that the defendant Howard Combs, is indebted to him in the sum of $40.50 for professional services rendered at the special instance and request of the defendant ; that said account is just due and unpaid ; that he believes he ought to recover the full amount of the account, to wit, $40.50 ; that the defendant has no property in this state subject to execution or not enough thereof to satisfy and pay said indebtedness and the collection of the demand will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment and return of no property found.

Wherefore plaintiff prays for a judgment against defendant in the sum of $40.50 with interest from date; for costs of this action and for a general order of attachment of defendant's property and for all other relief etc.
