The First School In Kentucky

Along with the women and children who came to Kentucky in the spring of 1775, was a teacher, Mrs. Jane Coomes, wife of William Coomes. To her goes the distinction of being the first teacher who taught school in Harrodsburg and in the state.

Enclosed by the stockade of Fort Harrod, on the very soil trod by the pioneer children as they went to and from their school tasks, now stands a replica of Mrs. Coomes's single room log schoolhouse. It has a dirt floor, pounded hard, and no chinking in the walls. The windows are of heavy greased paper. In the one room are backless benches made of puncheons—split logs, with legs driven into the rounded side. There were no books, paper nor pencils. The children learned by singing their lessons in unison, or from letters printed on wooden paddles. The only map was a rude drawing of the Great Dipper, by means of which every child was taught how to find his way, should he get lost in the dense forest. A huge fireplace fills one entire end wall of the building, with a whole through which great logs were pushed in from the outside to replenish the fire. A dunces' stool and a noggin for water with a gourd for a drinking cup completed the picture.

The fact that such a school was kept despite the hardships of pioneer life and of Indian attacks proves the estimate put on education by our forefathers. Thus we, the Senior Class, publish this Harrodian of 1937 with the hope that it will serve to bind us closer to our Alma Mater.

DEDICATION
to Principal J. K. Powell,
whose work and loyal devotion to the best interest of the students of Harrodsburg High School have been strong factors in the moulding of the character of those who are leaving, we the Class of 1937 dedicate this issue of the Harrodian.

Education makes a people easy to lead, but difficult to drive; easy to govern, but impossible to enslave. Attributed to Lord Brougham.

SENIOR CLASS

As we turn backward for a final survey, we cannot keep a bit of sadness from our thoughts as we realize our four years at Harrodsburg High School have passed. We glance back with both pleasure and regret at our high school days, with their joys and sorrows, their triumphs and failures. We know we can never relive these four years which we, with one accord, acclaim the happiest years of our lives. Each year has marked some change in our development—freshmen, trembling; sophomores, overcome with the "know-it-all" spirit; juniors, important; seniors, proud, but blushing at the little we know.

Graduation seemed a dream four years ago when we were a class of typical freshmen. We feared that we would never find our place as a part of the high school; however, within a few months not even the required attitude of submissive obedience was able to keep the talent and ability of the Class of 1937 from appearing and from being appreciated by upper-classmen and faculty. We put forth every effort to become organized, and soon we were securely established as a class. We soon found ourselves represented in athletics, and during the four years members of the Class of 1937 have given full support to every organization of our school. We have never failed to execute capably our duties.

When school again opened the following September, there were very few of the old class whose names didn't appear on the class roll to claim the glory of being a sophomore. Before many days of our second year had passed, we initiated the incoming freshmen, and we did it well. We are extremely proud of the excellent record made by our sophomore debating team who won first place in the district contest. Although not all of our members were permitted to take active part on the athletic teams, our class had charge of the coca cola sale during the athletic contests, and thereby added several dollars to the athletic association fund. We feel as if we had a part in our school's athletic victories. Another high light of this year was the never-to-be-forgotten class picnic at the Nicholasville Bathing Beach. Our sophomore record shows we did not lack self-assurance as in our freshmen days. We were wide awake, but we were not quite ready to be leaders.

In the junior year our responsibilities increased by leaps and bounds. As a class, our thoughts were centered around promoting the Junior-Senior banquet at the close of the school year. With hearty cooperation from all our members we were successful in giving a play which proved to be a dramatic success as well as a financial success. The money made by sponsoring the Tennis Club also added to our much needed bank account.

Again in our senior year we found we had lost several old members, but new members have added strength and vigor to our class in its last year at H. H. S. The uppermost thoughts in our minds, as soon as we realized we were seniors, was the publication of our yearbook, The Harrodian, of which we had been dreaming for four years. We found it necessary to work hard in an effort to earn money to publish the annual. We presented a play, sponsored a movie, sold coca cola at athletic contests, solicited orders for pioneer jerseys, and took advantage of every opportunity in order to finance the annual. Again this year our dramatically talented members made a further record for our class. In the District Forensic Contest we won two first places and two third places. In the State Forensic Contest the editor of our annual won first place in discussion. On April 1, instead of the traditional "kid day," we came to school dressed in tacky costumes and accessories. Needless to record, the faculty is glad that April the first comes only once a year.

It is with heavy hearts we think of leaving our school, but leave we must and pass on our unfinished task to another class. Our one wish is that we may be worthy representatives of our school. We know that our responsibilities will be many, but we believe that the knowledge we have gained through the patient instructions of our teachers and the association with our classmates will be priceless in helping us overcome the problems of life. Our hearts are full of love and gratitude for Harrodsburg High School. To our high school will be due many of our ideals, our inspirations, and much of our future success. We, the Class of 1937, bid you adieu.

Achievement

Our high school days are now over,
And real life for us just begun.
We have spent twelve years together
In worry, and in work and fun.
We traveled a road of hardship
In our freshman year—and then,
On the sophomore's rough highway
We struggled bravely again.

O why should we stop and study?
Does it really pay in the end?
Will we get the things we go after,
Such as money, success or friends?
We asked ourselves these questions
As students before us have done,
But to them there came no answer,
Time alone will tell who has won.

On the junior lap of our journey
Were some places both smooth and rough,
Time after time we were tempted
To stop and to cry out, "Enough!"
But ambition again rekindled
The bright flame of our guiding star
Which beckoned us ever onward
To the goal which once seemed so far.

But now, in the hazy distance
It nearer and yet nearer seems,
While brighter and ever brighter
This star of achievement gleams.
The road which once seemed so rugged
And rough as we stumbled along,
We travel with hearts grown lighter
And with voices uplifted in song.

Till as seniors we stand together
At the close of the last glad day,
With hearts that are sad, yet happy,
For we've come to the end of the way.
Our pathways in the hereafter
May lie very far, far apart,
But faces of friends and classmates
Fond memories we'll keep in heart.

To The Blue And The White
Music and words by Jacob Edwards Morgan, Jr.
Moderato

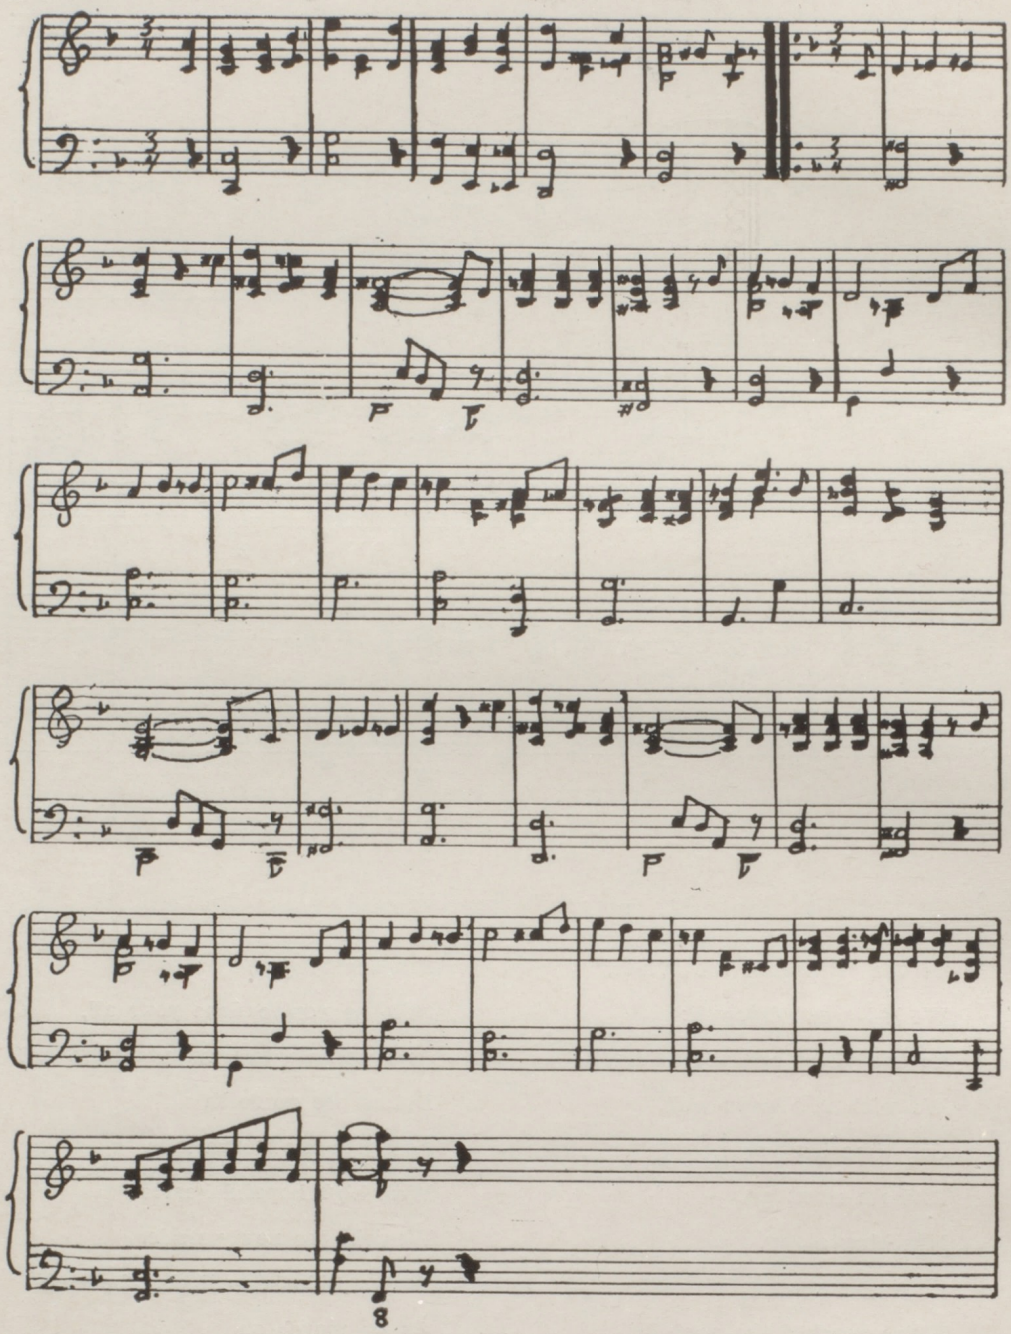

To the "Blue and the White,"
We bid a sad farewell;
To the "Blue and the White,"
We wish it always well.
Our time has come
And we must go
Marching along,
Singing our song.
We've reached the goal,
That we have been striving for;
We've got the future,
The world is at our door.

It's due to you,
Because you've done your all,
And we hate to leave you now.
But as we go forth
And join life's cavalcade,
With high hopeful hearts
We join the new parade.
To your ideals we'll ever be true
As we march on
Valiant and strong.
We'll keep memories bright
Of the dear "Blue and White."

Class of '37

Words and Music by Dorothy Slama

We are the members of our Senior Class,
We crave neither glamor nor fleeting renown.
But the beautiful glow of our friendship, we know,
Will sweeten our memories as years come and go.

We're Harrodsburg High Seniors. We'll do anything
To lighten the worries, and happiness bring.
There's a loyalty rare you will find thru and thru
In the Seniors of Harrodsburg High.

JUNIOR CLASS

Shy, green beginners, loving fun and scoffing at lessons, we often wonder how we scampered through our freshman year at school. We found the picnics and parties much more inviting than our books, and we happily rejoiced when Friday came, freeing us from labors for two short days.

As the first semester passed by, a few of our number withdrew, but most of them "stuck," thus composing the largest class Harrodsburg High School had known. Before the year was over many of our group had come to the front and we were taking part in the school activities.

With the arrival of our sophomore year we discovered a few more students had found it impossible to return to school, but their places were filled by others who joined us for the first time. We initiated the incoming freshmen, and we did it well—just ask one of them. This year our studies occupied a great part of our time. We seemed to spend hour upon hour working Algebra problems and perspiring over Caesar. However, we successfully accomplished the tasks assigned us. Yes, we recall page after page of fond memories, one of which is the never-to-be-forgotten class picnics at Herrington Lake.

This, our junior year, finds us taking a particularly active part in school life. With a number of brilliant students among us, and an excellent representation in the Girl Reserves, Hi-Y, Glee Club, Latin Club and French Club, in fact in every organization in school, we are of the opinion that a more full-fledged support and cooperation could not be expressed by any other group. As have all other classes, we have had our ups and downs; but at the same time friendships have been formed and good times have been had.

The foremost thought in our minds is that our time as seniors is drawing near. We anticipate next year with pleasure—yet with regret. We regret that one of the happiest periods of our life must end; yet, we rejoice that we will have succeeded in our one great aim—the desire to leave behind us a record unexcelled in sportsmanship and in all school activities. With our "might and main" we will work to make our Senior Class of 1938 the best Harrodsburg High School has ever known.

"Alas! Alas, The greenest of the green" so the sophomores of '35 heralded us. It's true, in September, 1935, we entered the Harrodsburg High School as freshmen in a green state of mind, almost afraid to move. However, it was not long before we had ambitions of making our high school proud of us and a desire to enter its activities.

We made our first step forward by electing class officers. Pearl Sexton, as president, was our presiding officer. She was assisted by Billy Sullivan, vice-president, George Edwards, secretary, and Kathleen Elerd, treasurer. Our first social event of the year was a Hallowe'en party in the gymnasium. We judged it the best party of all the classes, although the other classes disagreed with us. If it can't be classified as the best, we are sure it surpassed all others in noise and in tumult. A number of freshmen made places on the football and basketball squads. We had also set a high standard in the classroom before the end of our freshmen year. When the year was at an end we hung upon it the tag of success.

In 1936 we entered high school as sophisticated sophomores, feeling highly important because of our previous year of experience. We continued our high scholastic record set the year before. Out of a number of 65 students, 27 took five subjects.

Due to our supremacy over the "freshies" we were forced to give them the initiation which they rightly deserved, and which we had suffered the previous year. This we accomplished on all but the more brawny ones whom we finally decided didn't need initiating.

This year as school wore on it was plainly visible that quite a few love cases were developing. To these individuals, studies were of minor importance. They could be seen at regular intervals at the head or foot of the stairs, chattering rapidly lest the tardy bell ring before they finished.

In athletics we were again well represented. We surprised everyone by turning out ten candidates for football, each of whom made the squad. In basketball we produced four lettermen, one of whom made the all county team, all district team, and honorable mention for all Central Kentucky Conference team.

We furnished members for the Hi-Y, Girl Reserves, Dramatic Club, Latin Club, Glee Club, Science Club, Tennis Club and Athletic Association. We are ready to do our part for our high school.

Now, as the school year draws to a close, we feel proud that we have taken another step toward our goal—graduation. As a whole, we have considered our two years happy and worthwhile ones. We know as we leave we are two years farther in the knowledge and wisdom of the world. Our wish is that throughout our high school days we may be referred to as a class which will continue to bring pride to every faculty member and student of the Harrodsburg High School.

HARRODSBURG ATHLETIC COUNCIL

Emmett Goranflo, Football Coach—Mr. Goranflo came to Harrodsburg High School from Nortonville High School. His reputation as a coach there was a fine one, and he has proved it by the fine team he produced for H. H. S. this year. A great coach is in the making.

John DeMoisey, Basketball Coach—Mr. DeMoisey's coaching had much to do with the excellent record of the team this year. He has built a great team for H. H. S. Harrodsburg is justly proud of her basketball team and is no less proud of her coach who made such a team possible. Every man on the team has the utmost confidence in him.

Cheer Leaders—The cheer leaders cannot be given too much credit for their great work of leading the greatest cheering section H. H. S. has ever known. Mary Agnes Penney, Virginia Lee Sims, Chester Hawley, Billy Hanna, Nellie Clark and Jimmy Daugherty played a great part in helping to win our games. The pep of the cheer leaders was so contagious that it influenced the student body to attend games almost a hundred per cent.

FOOT

James Burns, Guard—Captain of the team, and a four-year-man, "Cush" was a hard worker and a warhorse on the grid-iron. He was an excellent blocker, and he could always be counted on for a good game. His presence will be greatly missed next year.

Jimmy Donovan, Full-back—Jimmie's hard and accurate blocking and all 'round good playing will be greatly missed when the team is formed next fall. He was a strong defensive man, and his consistant ground gaining was a pleasure to watch. He was also a four-year-man.

Elmore Mills, Halfback—Hard luck and injuries kept Elmore on the side lines a lot during the season, but when he did break into the game he showed that he could really play football. He was a good ground gainer and passer. He will be greatly missed next year.

Harvey Green, End—"Long" is a hard hitting wing-man, and he is very good at catching passes. His strong defensive playing made him a hard man to get around. Harvey has played three years for old H. H. S., and his presence will be greatly missed in '37.

Lewis Moss, End—"Mose" came to H. H. S. from Nicholasville. His ability as an end both on offense and defense added greatly to the strength of the team. At most all times Lewis could be counted on to carry out his assignments and also to help his teammates.

George Sadler, Halfback—"Sad" is noted for his rabbit-like pranks in the open field. He has carried the ball to many good gains, and his punting and passing mark him as an excellent triple threat man. He is just a sophomore, and much is expected from him in the next two years.

Dick Mitchell, Center—Dick learned to play second string center, but his fight and spirit earned him a place at tackle in several games. He is a hard worker and offers stiff opposition to any opponent. He shoud be a big help to the Blue and White for the next three years.

Bobbie Foster, Tackle and Fullback—"Bone-crusher" played a whirlwind game at tackle at the first of the season and later this curly-haired pioneer performed just as brilliantly at full-back. He is an excellent tackler, and, the harder the fight, the better he likes it.

James Best, Quarterback—For three years Best has carried the ball to victory. He is a fast, shifty back who starts for the goal line as if he means business. With his grit and determination, he should give the opponents plenty of trouble next year. James is also an excellent punter and a fine passer.

Samuel Teater, Tackle—"Sambo" is a powerhouse in every play, defensively and offensively. He has the fight it takes to win games. He was a constant dread to all opponents who faced the Pioneers. Next year should prove to be his biggest, as it will be his last.

James Claunch, Guard—"Jakie" is well known for his vicious line play. His sure blocking on line plays and on interference counted much for the scoring punch of the team. He has the heart it takes to play football and should go places next year.

Jack Reed, End—This tall lanky boy is a strong defensive man. His ability to smear plays before they were well started caused many teams a lot of trouble. Jack should be one of the main cogs next year. He is also adept at pass-catching.

George Edwards, Tackle—"Dogs" was a little slow to get started last year, but when he did get going, he proved to be a most valuable man to the Blue and White. He should make a fine lineman with another year's experience under the guidance of Coach Goranflo.

Russell Curtsinger, Halfback—"Curt" is a lad to be feared by his opponents. He is a fast sidestepping back who can also punt and pass with the best. With his grit, speed and experience, he should be a real star from the first kick-off in 1937.

Charles Wade, Quarterback—"Chuck," in his first year at H. H. S., has shown that he has considerable ability as a football general. Vicious tackles were all a part of the day's work for him. He is clever in blocking, aggressive and fast. He has two more years.

Henry Chilton, Center—"Hen" played consistently and brilliantly throughout the season. He proved to be a tower of strength to the team. Hard as tacks, he seemed immune to injuries. He and Bobbie Foster, with their humor, kept the team in a jolly mood.

Winfred Foster, Guard—"Tycobb" was never known to quit trying. He was a willing worker, but lacked experience. However, he improved greatly during the year and should be a great help to the Blue and White next year. He will be a sophomore next year.

Claude Freeman—"Shine" decided to get off the scrub team this year, and put forth such a determination that he was not to be denied. Hold him on the side lines for a quarter and he is ready to smash bones. "Shine" made his way by fighting.

Bernard Cloyd, J. P. Hatchett, Managers—For three years Bernard has been manager. You can't find a better one in any high school. J. P. is a ready assistant. Both can always be counted upon to carry out the coach's wishes. Their faithfulness and loyalty are an inspiration to all the players.

James Burns, Guard and Captain—"Cush," although he was a little slow and did not score very often, was the backbone of the team. He always showed excellent judgment in directing plays, and his absence will be keenly felt next year.

George Handy Ensminger, Forward—This lanky boy was an excellent rebounder and could shoot long ones with uncanny accuracy. "Goony" added greatly to the scoring average of the team. This made his third year on the squad, and he will be greatly missed next year.

Robert Horn, Forward—"Fog" was one of the most valuable boys on the squad because of his ability to play all positions and really play them well. His fight and aggressiveness pulled the team out of many tight holes. Robert will be missed next year.

Stanley Houchins, Guard—"Hard-Boots" was a flashy type of guard, very fast and an excellent crip shot. He was selected on both the all-county and all-district teams. Stanley has played three years for Blue and White. Great things are expected of him next year.

Jack Reed, Center—"Tom" controlled the tip-off throughout the season, and his offensive and defensive rebounding added considerably to the strength of the team. He also merited a position on the all-county and all-district teams. He has one more year to wear the Blue and White.

George Sadler, Guard—"Sad," although the smallest man on the squad, was the team's spark-plug. He was the high point man for the season and is an excellent shot, both from around the center and under the basket. George has two more years to perform for H. H. S. He was also selected on the all-county and all-district teams.

James Claunch, Guard—"Jakie" is one of the most reliable players on the squad. He fought just as hard when we were losing as he did when we were winning. Jakie was an especially good defensive man, and he has the fight it takes to win games. He has one more year to play for Harrodsburg.

George Edwards, Guard—"Dogs" has played two successful years for Harrodsburg. He proved to be an excellent performer at many times. He was a valuable long shot. George has two more years to play, and next year should put him on the star list.

TOURNAMENTS

With a fighting spirit the Pioneers entered the 1937 county tournament held at Cornishville, topping McAfee and Cornishville. To the disappointment of all H. H. S. rooters, they lost to Burgin in the final game by the score of 26 to 29. Although we did not win, we brought home a nice trophy as runner-up.

The Pioneers entered the district tournament, which was held at Burgin, with the determination to win. After beating Burgin by 19 to 16 and trampling Cornishville by 32 to 20, they won the tournament by defeating Lawrenceburg 24 to 20. What a great day that was for the Pioneers! Amid ringing applause and hearty congratulations they were presented with the winners' trophy. At last they had reached the great goal toward which they had set their hearts. They were very proud of their achievement, for only once before had a Pioneer team won a district tournament.

Although the Pioneers lost in the regional tournament held at Richmond, they gave an excellent account of themselves by fighting an up-hill battle with Bryan Station. The score at the half was 16 to 5 in Bryan Station's favor. At the beginning of the second half the Pioneers ran the score up to 21 to 18, still in favor of Bryan Station. The Pioneers showed great sportsmanship and did exceedingly well, losing by the score of 30 to 23 to the only team that defeated Midway, the champions.
