County of Fayette)

The affiant, Jas. H. Martin, states that there was delivered to him, June 23, 1931, by Jno. S. Buster, Sheriff of Mercer County, Harrodsburg, Ky., a package containing four bottles of liquid alleged to be home brew, the said liquid having been seized by Chief of Police, S. K. Daugherty, from Harve Brown, June 18, 1931 and submitted for analysis to determine the presence and amount of alcohol.

The affiant further states that the sample was given a serial laboratory number of 22743, No. A, B, C, and D, and when analyzed by said affiant by the official methods of analysis for such products, gave the following results:-

Lab. No. 22743

No. A	Alcohol	=	4.57%	absolute alcohol by volume.
No. B	Alcohol	=	4.39%	"	"	"	"
No. C	Alcohol	=	4.34%	"	"	"	"
No. D	Alcohol	=	4.76%	"	"	"	"

The affiant further states that the above is true to his best knowledge and belief.
