

Mercer Quartely Court

W.A.Tribble, C.O.Pickett
& James B.Tribble,
Doing business under the style
and firm name of the Tribble
& Pickett Furniture Company.

Plaintiff

-Vs-

Affidavit.

C.M.Wright.

Defendant.

The affiant, E.M.Hardin, states, that he is Attorney of the plaintiff Tribble & Pickett Furniture Company, of Danville, Ky., and that said plaintiff's and each of them, are absent from Mercer County, and that the claim in this action is a mortgage note,; that affiant believes it is a just claim; that the plaintiff as affiant believes aught to recover therein the sum of $ 127.10 and their cost herein expended.

That the defendant has sold or otherwise disposed of his property with a fraudual intent, to cheat or hinder his creditors and that the collection of his demand would be in danger by his delay in obtaining judgment or return of no property found.

E. M. Hardin
Attorney for plaintiff.

Subscribed and sworn to by E.M.Hardin, this the 26th day of Feby. 1924.

B. A. Allen
Notary Public Mercer County, Ky.

Judge