L.M. Vanarsdale,

Plaintiff

vs Statement and Affidavit

Prewitt Brothers, a firm composed of Will Prewitt and Earnest

Prewitt,

Defendants

Exhibit A
The plaintiff, Lewis Vanarsdale, states that the defendants Prewitt Brothers a firm composed of Will Prewitt and Earnest Prewitt are indebted to him in the sum of $30.40, for goods and merchandise furnished and delivered to them by this Plaintiff at their special instance and request and ~~draw~~ which they promised and agreed to pay the above amount. An itemized statement of said account is filed herewith as a part hereof, marked "A" for identity.

The plaintiff, states that the nature of the claim is above set out, that it is just due and owing and that no part of same has been paid, although same is past due and demand has been repeatedly made of them for same.

He states that the plaintiffs, as he is informed are about to sell, convey and otherwise dispose of their property, for the purpose of cheating hindering and delaying their creditors and this plaintiff.

Wherefore he prays for a judgment against the Defendants in the above sum of $30.40, for a general order of attachment against their property, for his costs and all proper relief.
