

J.P. Spilman,

Pliff

-vs- Answer

Susie Shouse &c

Deft

1915- April, 7th,

Filed-

J.M.Q.C.

John Shouse

MERCANTILE COURT

Pliff

J.P. Spilman,

Answer.

Deft

Wherefore they pray to be dismissed, for their cost and all proper relief.

note given as aforesaid to the said Pliff and accepted by him.

that they are indebted to the Pliff in any sum, except under the said knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief, but they deny the Pliff has with the Company as to said first premium, they have no claim against the said Deft Shouse. They say as to what contract accepted the same. They say that the Pliff still holds said note as a for said contract.

was a condition precedent to the renewal of said policy, and that except the Pliff of the said xixix note in lieu of cash for said first payment said receipt herewith as part hereof. They say that the acceptance by accepted by him as a full settlement of said first payment. He files full of the first payment; the said note of the said John Shouse being months after date and that he issued to the Pliff Deft a receipt in of $62.29 signed by the Deft "John Shouse, due and payable accept and did accept as the first payment, a note for the said sum the Defts to take out said policy the Pliff, J.P. Spilman, agreed to

to the Company on the renewal of the policy; that as an inducement to al payment on said policy was the sum of $62.29 and was due and payable delivered to the said Deft John Shouse. They say that the first annual their fifteen the sum of $1000. and they say that said policy was as agent of the "Mutual Life Insurance Society", a joint policy upon Pliff's policy say that it is true that they secured from the Pliff

The Defts Susie Shouse and John Shouse do answer to the