

Marketing Association executed to it by the defendant Pryor Coffman and that it holds warehouse receipts issued by the said Association to the said Kaufman for a sum in excess of any amount owing to said bank.

Wherefore it prays judgment against the defendants T W Coffman and Pryor Coffman for the said sum of $150.00 with interest and cost as aforesaid and that the defendants Burley Cooperative Marketing Association be required to answer and disclose what sums they are owing^{to} or hold for the defendant Pryor Coffman or T W Coffman, and that any sum so held be adjudged to the plaintiff as a credit upon its debt and that the defendants be required to pay the same to plaintiff. It prays for a general order of attachment against the defendants, property and for all general and equitable relief.
