

Q. As a matter of fact, Judge Byington, you did know, did you not, when you came into possession of the note sued on in this case, that the notes, contract, and bond were all a part of the same transaction?

A. I knew that the notes were given for the goods sold under the contract and I knew that the bond was given under some provision of the contract assuring trade.

O. A. Byington

I, the undersigned, Franc Moon, Notary Public in and for Johnson County, Iowa, hereby certify that the foregoing deposition was taken before me on July 20, 1916, in Room 508 of the Johnson County Savings Bank Building at Iowa City, Iowa, pursuant to agreement, as stated in the caption, and for the purposes there set out; that the witness was by me first duly sworn before giving his deposition; that his statements were written by me in his presence and read to and subscribed by him in my presence; plaintiff was present in person and the defendant was present by his attorney, Henry G. Walker.
