As graduation time draws near,
We separate and go our way;
We're ready to face life without fear,
As we end our years of play.

For fun through the years we have had,
We've crossed the line to success;
Now as we graduate we're sad,
Facing life doing our best.

We've passed the years of toil and strife,
The going was tough we shall admit;
We've prepared ourselves to face a new life,
The years come but we won't forget.

We the sixteen seniors of 1948,
To our friends here will say good-by;
We've labored hard but we've reached the gate,
But don't forget we love Rose Hill Hi.

Before our eyes we can see the light,
To our kind teachers we owe the past;
We'll hold our heads high and always do right,
For they helped us do the task.

Senior History

September, 1944, nineteen shy Freshman entered the institution in the Rose Hill School. We had Mrs. Agnes Dean as our home room teacher. During our freshman year we gave two one act plays. We lost one member, Dalton Carey and gained three, Lucille Wiley, Wilma Lester, and Delores Warner.

In 1945 we entered our Sophomore year with seventeen members under a new principal, Mr. Alfred Cross. Mrs. Alice Tatum guided us through our stage of silly ways with success. Miss Adams, our Dramatic instructor, coached our play "A Quiet Home Wedding." This year we lost Loretta McCrystal and gained H.B. Wilham.

In 1946, we entered our Junior year with Mrs. Agnes Dean as our home room teacher. Mr. D.L. Buchanan from Ohio became our new principal. Two of our members left the class near the opening of school, Harold Davis to join the armed forces and Lucille Thorpe retired from school life. Other than our scholastic achievements our principal interests were engaged in activities to carry out our place for the Annual Junior-Senior Party. We gave for our junior play a one-act play "The Cunning Lunatic", and a three act play "Untangled Yarn."

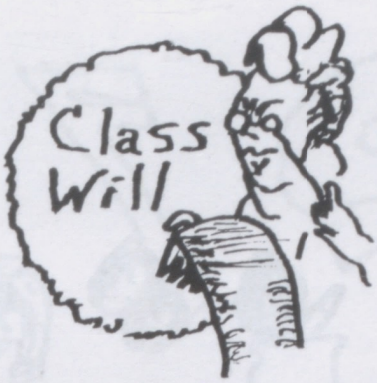

September 8, 1947, sixteen mischievous seniors entered school to complete our task. We elected the following officers: President-Clyde Coy; Vice President-Lucille Wiley; Treasuer-Sara Sparrow; Secretary-Wilma Lester.

This year we gained Maurice Baker, a true member to our class. We welcome Mr. James Rynerson and Mr. Walter Rowe to our faculty.

Our class presented a three-act play entitled "Springtime For Susie," with Mr. Buchanan as sponsor.

This year was full and happy and much was learned. This was due to the guidance and efforts of Mr. Buchanan, our senior advisor.

We all feel that we owe much to all our teachers and friends, who have helped prepare us for the biggest school of all - THE SCHOOL OF LIFE.

Being of sound mind and body (we hope) we, the students of the class of '48 bequeath the following to the underclassmen:

To Margaret Buchanan, we leave Sara Sparrow's pocket book and contents.

To Connie Bess Allen, we leave Dorothy Thompson's quietness.

To Chloe Lester and Bill Caton, we leave J.W. Jackson's marriage license.

To Jimmie Wheeler, we leave Arthur Bugg's little feet.

To Doris Carr, we leave Ida Mae Claunch's engagement rings.

To G.T. Lester, we leave Ezra Tatum's stupid ways.

To Katie Sampson, we leave Lucille Wiley's lovely walk.

To Lois Jane Catlett, we leave Joyce Carey's stunning figure.

To Loretta Bailey, we leave Mary Maye's ability to laugh.

To Inez Cummins, we leave Geneva Kirkland's ability to get along with classmates.

To Ann Horn, we leave Wilma Lester's ability to talk and make friends.

To Garfield Devine, we leave H.B. Wilham's green ford.

To Chester Kidd, we leave Bob Baker's ability to eat.

To Mary Elizabeth Merriman, we leave La Verne McRays lovely disposition.

To Frances Clark, we leave Alma Horn's farming ability.

To Junior Anness, we leave Clyde Coy's ability to flirt.

We now wish to dispose of the following:

Item: To the faculty, we bequeath our excellent behavior during class period.

Item: To our principal, Mr. Buchanan, we leave him the satisfaction of knowing we the senior class have completed our high school work.

Item: To the Junior Class, we leave many hours of study.

Finally, we hereby appoint Mr. Buchanan, the principal, sole executor of this will and testament.

In witness thereof, we the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred forty-eight, leave this will and testament.

Mr. Whitehead: "What can you tell about nitrates?"

Arthur: "Well, they're a lot cheaper than day rates."

Junior History

We entered Rose Hill High School as very green Freshmen in September, 1945. Mrs. Agnes Dean was our homeroom teacher. There were eighteen of us, but we lost two of our classmates, J.B. Peavler and Billy Best.

In 1946 we entered our sophomore year with a new homeroom teacher, Mr. Whitehead. We lost two more of our crew, Ray Gibson and Robert Gilliland. Robert decided he preferred married life. We gained two new members, Chester Kidd and Gloretta Davis. Gloretta had to quit because of her health.

In 1947 we entered our Junior year with Mr. Rynerson as homeroom teacher. We gained three new members, Junior Annes from Harrodsburg, Garfield Devine from Perryville and Bert Mathingly from Salvisa. Bert thought he would like the army better, so he joined the army.

In our activities this year we sold magazines and class pins.

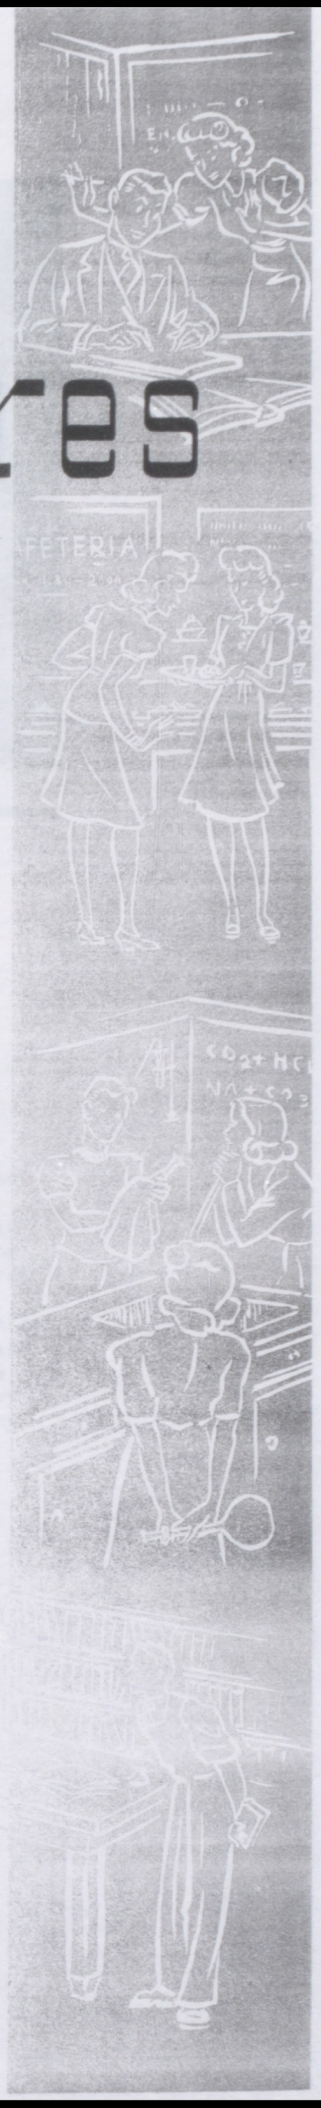

We also got our class rings which brought us much joy.

We put on a play called, "Granddad Steps Out." It was directed by Mr. Buchanan.

This is our history for the first three years. We have many happy memories. We are looking forward to next year when we will be the Seniors of 1949.

Sophmore History

On September 9, 1946, twenty-eight green little Freshmen enrolled in the Rose Hill High School, with Miss Mellie Matherly as our sponsor. Lucky for us she taught History. Later on in the year two new pupils enrolled. They were Robert Sampson and Bobby L. Elliott. We lost Arah Langford who decided to be a farmerette.

At our first class meeting we elected our class officers: President-Wanda Claunch, Vice President-W.H. Darland, Secretary-Lawrence Hendren, Treasuer-Stacy Darland, Reporter-Nanrie Mae Perkins.

On May 10, 1947, the Freshman class enjoyed a nice trip to Mammoth Cave.

We entered the Sophomore Class under a new director, Mr. Whitehead. Our class at this time had twenty-one members. During the year we lost three faithful members, Nannie Mae Perkins who entered Salvisa School, and Mabel Tyler, and Gloretta Davis who decided washing dishes was better than going to school.

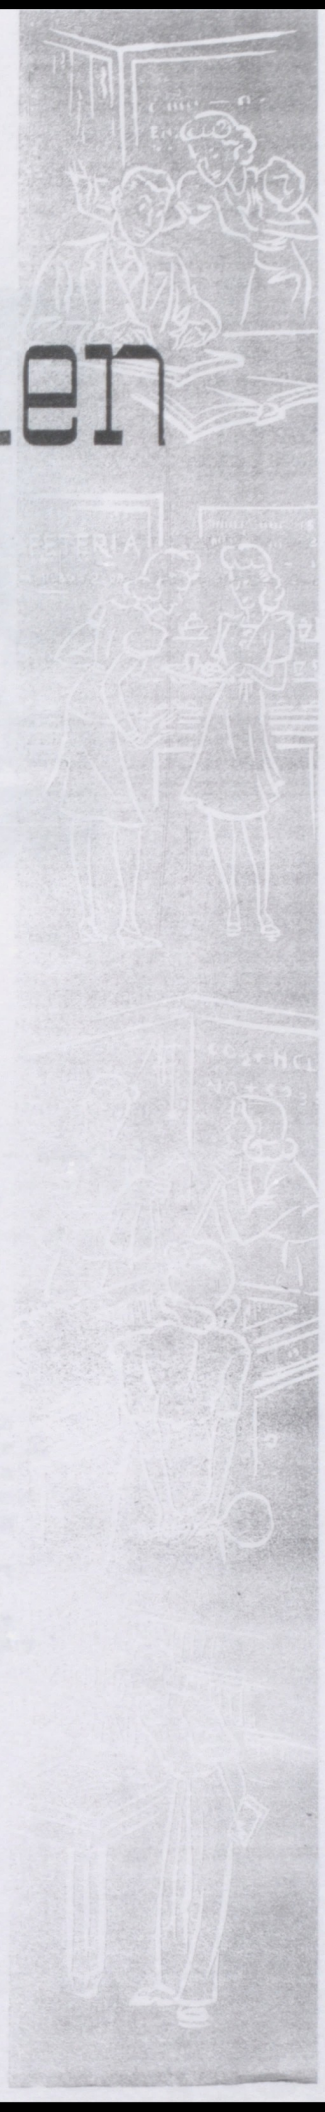

Our class officers are, President-Wanda Claunch, Vice President-Gloretta Davis, Secretary-Stacy Darland, Treasuer-Charles Davis, and Nannie Mae Perkins, Reporter-Bobby L. Elliott.

We had the priviledge of putting on a three-act comedy, "There'll Come A Day."

We hope that our next two years are as happy as the past have been.

Freshman History

In September, 1947, thirty-five "Green Freshies" entered in the Rose Hill High School.

It was a strange new experience for us, but we fell in line with the rest.

At our first class meeting we elected the following officers: President-Harold Horn, Vice President-Donald Caton, Treasuer-Allan Henderson, Secretary-Scott Montgomery, Reporter-Rebecca Logue & Virginia McGinnis. We were very fortunate to have Mr. Walter Rowe as our sponser.

We lost quite a few of our classmates. They were, Mary Worthington, Mattie B. Hart, Zelma Perkins and Marvin Perkins.

Lena Harmon and Helen Kays decided they would rather keep house so they got married. We gained two, Frances Carmickle from Burgin and Marie Alford from Harrodsburg High. We were glad to have them in our class.

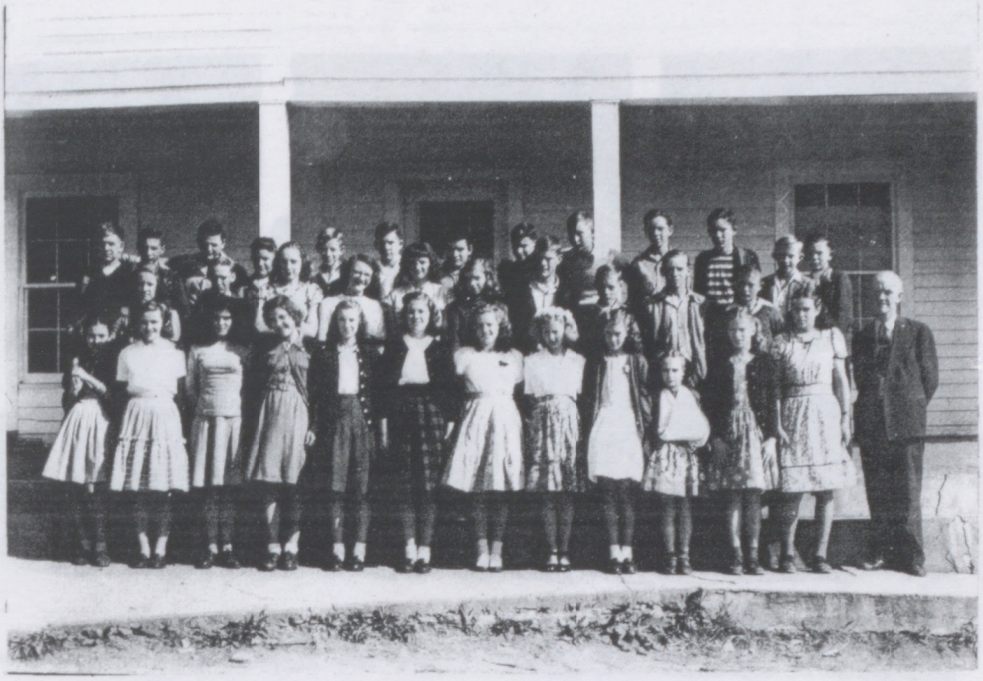

Some of our boys went in for basket ball. The girls were represented in the Y-Teens.

In May we gave a three act play entitled, "Three Old Maid Aunts."

Now at the end of our Freshman year we feel that we are really a part of Rose Hill High School. We hope that the next three years will be as happy and successful as the first.

Alma: "Cheer up-there's plenty of good fish left in the sea."
LaVerne: "Yes, but who wants to marry a fish."

Garfield: "We're going to have a swell evening. I've got three seats to the movies."
Wilma: "Three seats?" What do we want with three seats?"
Garfield: "One each for your dad, your mom, and your kid brother."

Mr. Rynerson: "How is it that you haven't made progress, at your age, I could read fluently?"
Sara: "Probably you had a better teacher than I, sir."

Dad: "So you desire to become my son-in-law, do you, young man?"
Craig: "Frankly, I don't, but I see no way out of it if I intend to marry Joyce."

Geneva: "Is there a letter for me?"
Postman: "What's your name?"
Geneva: "It's on the envelope can't you read?"

Ida: "I'm going to sneeze."
Mary Ellen: "At who?"
Ida: "Atchoo."

Dorthy: "I wouldn't marry the best man living."
Clyde: "I'm sorry you feel that way about me, but thanks for the compliment."

Mr. Rowe: "What are you reading about, Ezra?"
Ezra: "I don't know."
Mr. Rowe: "Well, you were reading aloud."
Ezra: "Yes, but I wasn't listening."

Mother: "What are those brown spots on your new suit?"
Bob: "Rust, I guess. The saleman said it would wear like iron."

Mr. Buchanan: "Very few women have any knowledge of parliamentory law."
Mr. Rynerson: "You don't know my wife. She's been speaker of the house for twenty-five years."

We give our sincere appreciation to the members of the Rose Hill School faculty and student body for their help in putting out the Annual of 1948.

"Whoever thinks a faultless piece to see; thinks that which never was, nor is, nor yet shall be."

The above couplet well describes the authors and those responsible for the production of the Senior Annual of the Rose Hill High School, Mercer County, Kentucky.

The undertaking is a stupendous task due to location of school, and not having a Commercial Department at our command. However, the class has labored diligently, and with many problems have wrestled until we are glad to say, "It is finished." This is due to persistence which conquers all things.

We trust you will like it, and that it is a picture in perspective of the work being attempted in our beloved school, and we ask your charitable indulgence in evaluating the need of this fine project.

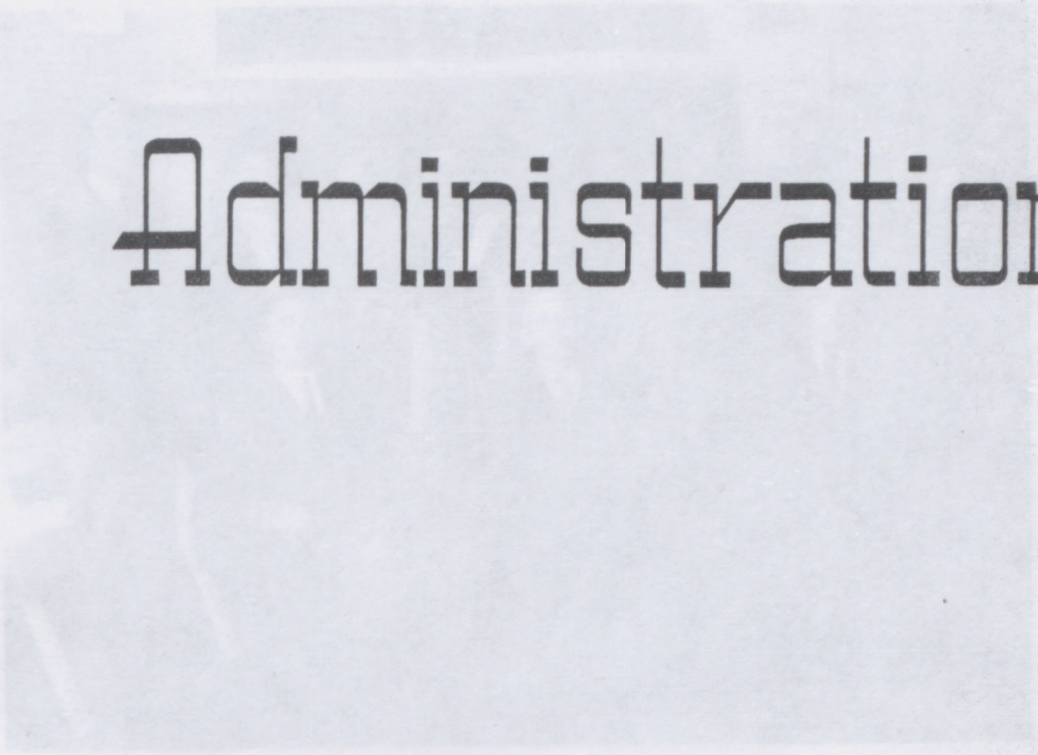

Dedicated To

With grateful hearts for his square dealing and fair play toward us as well as all the students of Rose Hill School, we dedicate this volume known as the Milestone to our efficient Principal, Mr. D.L. Buchanan.

His belief in good behavior, sound scholarship, and play as well as work will make his stay at Rose Hill long to be remembered.
