

of labor for Plaintiff and his family, usually performed on a term, and for said term reached and worked in the tobacco, and performed every conceivable character period for Plaintiff and assisted in maintaining provisions for Plaintiff's family, with Plaintiff occasionally to the city. She says that during said time she was forfeited, and returned to Kentucky, where she and her infant child have resided United States Government, after which, on January 10, 1930, at the solicitation of with her husband that year, where he was held in the draft for army service by the for about seven years, with the exception of brief periods of absence in the South is a resident of the state of Kentucky and has resided in said state for xxxxxxxx Plaintiff and Defendant, Julia Edington, versus Phil Sallee, Dft.

Phil Sallee, Plff.
vs. Affidavit, Claim &c.
Julia Edington, Dft.

Julia Edington,

Dft.

vs. Affidavit, Claim &c. for Exemplary and Contempt of Court.

Plaintiff,

Dft.

for contempt of court.