

Phil Sallee,

Plff.

vs. Answer, affidavit & Claim for Exemptions, and Counter-claim.

Julia Edington,

Dft.

Affiant and Defendant, Julia Edington, states that she is a resident of the state of Kentucky and has resided in said state for ~~approximately~~ ~~about~~ about Seven years, with the exception of a brief period of absence in the South with her husband last year, where he was held in the draft for army service by the United States Government, after which, on January 10, 1920, at the solicitation of Plaintiff, she returned to Kentucky, where she and her infant child have resided with Plaintiff continuously to this time. She says that during said time she has labored for Plaintiff and assisted in furnishing provisions for Plaintiff's family, washed and ironed, worked in his tobacco, and performed every conceivable character of labor for Plaintiff and his family, usually performed on a farm, and for said ~~1/2~~