

R. L. Black

Attorney
Harrodsburg, Ky.

For further reply he alleges that the note ~~given~~ filed with the said intervenor's petition is the note of Miss Josephine Woods and that it was given for a buggy bought by said intervenor has a lien on said said note and that the payor of said intervenor can collect his claim at any time he chooses so to do and that to be heard as an intervenor in the case.

her of the intervenor, and that buggy to secure the payment of said note is solvent and that the aim of the payor of said note at that for this reason he has no right

He further alleges that there was no consideration for the order of the said Jas. Woods to said Geo. Bohon Company and that said order for this reason is null and void and of no effect and does not constitute an equity in the fund upon which it is alleged to be drawn.

Wherefore he prays that at the said Geo. Bohon Company be by order of this court directed to enforce his lien on said buggy and that it be required to exhaust its not and that it further be ordered petition herein be dismissed at his costs and for all relief to which the plaintiff is, or may appear to be entitled.

remedy against the payor of said and adjudged that the intervenor's

R. L. Black

Attorney For Riley.