CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1940, there was the largest class of green freshmen to yet enter Salvisa High School. Our total enrollment for the year was twenty-six. During the year Fred Stewart stopped to become a farmer. At the end of the year, much to our disappointment, we found that "Bo" Fallis would no longer be in our group.

Entering our Sophomore year we had one new pupil, Ralph Frost, who had been transferred from Rose Hill. Later in the year we were overjoyed to have two new entries : Laura Belle Roney, who came from Cornishville and Lala Jeffries, from Fairview. That same year Ralph Frost left to go to Virginia.

Our Junior year brought our number down considerably, with a start of twenty-four. Mary Wiley moved to Lawrenceburg and Maymie Moore decided to quit school. Undoubtedly Aubrey Morris was tired of school, because the report came unexpectedly that he also, had quit. Our last loss was "Freck" Sullivan, now Private-First-Class William H. Sullivan, who went into service for his and our country. We hated to lose "Freck" for he was a devoted member of our class since early in the elementary grades.

Upon the opening of school in the fall of '43 we were surprised to learn that Lena Phillips had decided to change her name to Mrs. Lee Sims and become a housewife; and also, that Lillian Poulter had retired from active scholarship. A little later we received the news that Jasper Cole had decided to see the world as a "Gob" in Uncle Sam's Navy. Evidently two of our girls had been considering all the viewpoints of matrimony and decided upon nuptial vows for Edna Mae Riley became Mrs. J. D. Robinson and Juanita Tindall became Mrs. David Farthing, she however, has continued with us.

Our number is now sixteen and we are looking with bright hopes and high aims to the future, but in the end the enjoyable days we spent at old S.H.S. will be a treasure in our storehouse of memories.

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1944, being of sound mind and memory do hereby make this our last will and testament. We realize that as a class we have only a few more days to live and we desire that our property--namely, our faults and our wishes, shall be equally divided before our departure.

Sara Evelyn Cunningham leaves her cosmetics to Elizabeth Brown.

Juanita Tindall leaves her ability to keep a secret to Dorothy Currens.

Lillie Sullivan leaves her"gift of gab"to Frances Freeman.

Bert Caruthers leaves his wise cracks to R. H. Gash.

Mildred Yocum leaves her ability to get along with the boys to Oneida Roney. Look out for those black-haired boys, Oneida.

Laura Belle Roney leaves her talents to sing "No Letter To-day" to Aileen Goodlett.

To Glenn Short, Harney Howard leaves his ability to court the Freshmen girls, and hopes he'll keep up the good work, as Harney has started it.

Onita Thompson leaves her ability to be nice to State Patrolmen to Rose Robinson. Remember the speed limit, Rose.

Peggy Taylor leaves her melodious voice to Elizabeth Morris. Don't strain your voice, Elizabeth.

Donald Cosby wills his ability to make good English grades to R. H. Gash. Careful whose notebook

you copy, R. H.

Sarah Frances Jordan leaves her moron jokes to Margaret Beasley.

To Elizabeth Freeman, Lala Jeffries leaves her ability to fix flat tires, since "Libby" has had good practice.

The Senior girls wish to leave the mirror in Mrs. Mitchell's room which they have used all year, to the Junior girls. Watch out, girls, don't leave it lying in the window.

Marshall Gritton leaves his ability to get to school in time for English, to Jackie Garriott. He hopes Jackie will at least get there on time once a month.

Lucille Goodlett leaves her salesmanship in the candy office to Jane Garriott.

Hadgie Robinson leaves her ability to find her way around Lawrenceburg to Mary Frances Bell.

The Senior boys leave their privilege of smoking before each class to the Sophomore boys, and they hope that it will be made good use of.

CLASS PROPHECY

One day I took a walk out in the woods. On my way I saw a very beautiful tree and I stopped and sat down. I sat for a long, long time and all at once I dropped off to sleep. As I sat there asleep I had the most wonderful dream--I dreamed a fairy came and talked with me. She said she'd grant me any wish that I wanted. I told her I'd like to know the future of my class-mates, and she said "Your wish shall be granted.

Say, what is that great crowd gathering on the streets of Salvisa ? They're there to see their new Mayor. Who could that be ? No one but BERT CARUTHERS.

If you ever get sick and need plenty of attention just call on PEGGY TAYLOR, the nurse who stands out as being the best of all nurses.

And that new teacher at Salvisa! She surely knows her mathematics, because those children can add 2 and 2. She's none other than MILDRED ANN YOCUM .

Gee Whiz! Who's that handsome sailor coming down the street ? And is that his wife ?! ! Yes, that is Shorty and LUCILLE. They're living in New York now.

There's no job big enough for MARSHALL GRITTON, but President, that I can see, but do you suppose he'd ever get up in time!

Who's that great lawyer that's coming to Harrodsburg ? Be good to Salvisa people, won't you, HARNEY HOWARD ? People he's a genius.

There's a beautiful little home over Oregon way. I wonder who has bought it! The newlyweds, of course-- LALA JEFFRIES and George Omer Moore.

I wonder why all of the girls are running after DONALD COSBY. Oh! yes, he's one of Uncle Sam's men. All the girls go for that uniform.

Where did you get that beautiful permanent ? Why didn't you know we had a beautician in Lawrenceburg!

It couldn't be anyone but HADGIE ROBINSON, who knows so well how to beautify us!

Who is that typing so fast and working so hard at short hand ? That is our new secretary DELLA YOCUM .

What is this that we hear about that great beautician in New Jersey ? She gets all the trade for miles around ----that is LILLIE SULLIVAN.

She surely can plan meals with all the vitamins and calories needed. That is our dietitian---Sarah FRANCES JORDAN.

Who is that nurse getting off that ship ? She's been serving overseas. Of course, I recognize her--she is Juanita Tindall.

She knows all the styles from coast to coast, and she is back in town to tell us about them. That is our dress designer, SARA EVELYN CUNNINGHAM.

And LAURA BELLE RONEY is the Secretary of the day! She has a big job in the Attorney's office.

I hear that Lawrence Sanford has just returned to the states and ONITA THOMPSON has already bought a new blue outfit. I believe we'll have a wedding on hands soon.

Just then I woke up and looked all around, but I couldn't see the fairy any place. But I was very pleased that she had told me the future of all my class-mates.

"SENIOR GADGETS"

She's happy-go-lucky, carefree and hazy,
Guess who ? Oh no! Not Swing Shift Maisie.
She's got two brown eyes that sparkle with glee,
LAURA BELLE RONEY, it's bound to be.

They say red hair is a sign of temper
Yet Harney Howard ne'er makes a whimper.
He buys the Senior girls candy,
And never seems to find it unhandy,
He blushes easily, laughs with joys--
He's just another of those four boys.

Eager to learn, eager to travel
Never a care does she unravel.
With passionate love for all her friends
LALA JEFFRIES , well her time spends.

In our class of one dozen roses
We have one who continually poses
To Mr. Satterly, in all his classes
As he quite often lifts his glasses
He finds that one girl refuses to moan,
PEGGY TAYLOR is answering the phone.

Sliding on down the line of girls
We find LUCILLE GOODLETT, with her twists and twirls.
She's carefree, pretty, bold and gay,
Not often can she say, "No letter to-day".

She can write and talk and sing and cry,
Or anything else, she'll always try.
She's short, yet bold and sharp as a tack,
That's LILLIE SULLIVAN, a sure fact.

Tall and straight, quiet and free,
Who on earth could this girl be?
She's fair complected, eyes of blue,
That's HADGIE ROBINSON, Woo! Woo!

The Senior moron, Caruthers, Bert
Not only is funny, but is a flirt.
He's the only boy who doesn't smoke,
He'll remind you of a bicycle spoke.

She's as pert as a mouse
Her desire is keeping house,
She's in favor of war brides
With their elegance and prides.
It's Onita now, Onita ever,
THOMPSON now, but not forever.

DONALD COSBY, the jazz of the class,
He never cheats, yet jokes tells fast.
He embarrasses the girls, like the crack of a whip
He's expecting soon, to take leave on a ship.

MRS. DAVID FARMING, the only married girl
Puts all the other girls in a terrible whirl.
We wish the best of luck in all that you do;
May God's richest blessings be upon you.

Comb and mirror, powder and paint
That's what makes a boy faint.
SARA CUNNINGHAM, with her grooming
Looks just like a daisy blooming.

MARSHALL GRITTON, bold and cute
Can make a noise just like a flute.
With his sayings and wise cracks
He's equal to "The King of Jacks".

There's a certain little girl
Who seems always in a whirl.
She's cute and shy with plenty of might.
For fear of gaining, she's on a diet.
With all things balanced well accordin'
That's none other than SARAH JORDAN.

One cup of giggles and joys
Two teaspoons of talks with boys
One heaping handful of ha, ha, tee, hee,
DELLA YOCUM is the victim of this recipe.

Eager to learn, eager to serve,
There's one girl with energy--in reserve.
To be efficient is her ambition
An opportunity for work, to her, is welcome;
She ? MILDRED ANNE YOCUM.

What a poem of Seniors be
If our teachers you could not see.
There's Miss cox, our English tutor
And Mr. Satterly, the History rooter;
Mrs. Mitchell, with knowledge of Math
Miss Lapsley, the Principal, all power hath.

"Darling Nelly Gray"

OUR DEAR SALVISA SCHOOL

There's a Low brick school house
On the old Kirkwood road
Where I've passed many happy hours away
A-reading and a-writing at the table by the door,
With my old school chums there so gay.

CHORUS.

O, my dear Salvisa School,
We are going away from you,
And we'll never come to school here anymore.
We'll be going away to college
And there we will have to stay,
But you're on our minds forever more.

Now our High School days have ended,
And we'll have to say good-bye.
Farewell to our dear Salvisa School.
We so often talk it over
But we always have to cry,
For we love our dear Salvisa School.

Now we want to thank our teachers
Who have been so kind and true--
So kind and patient every day.
We are happy till we sing this
But it makes us sad and blue
To leave our dear Salvisa School.

JUNIOR HISTORY

In the year of 1940 we graduated from the eighth grade with six girls and eight boys. At the opening of the Freshman Year we were sorry to know that Essie Parrott and Arvin Short had decided not to come back but we were delighted to have "Bo" Fallis as a new member. During the first semester of this year, Glenn Ransdell moved to Rose Hill and Delmer Freeman decided to farm. During the second semester we were happy to have Elizabeth Brown, from Harrodsburg to join our class but we didn't like the thoughts of "Bo" leaving us, although he was determined to leave.

Entering our Sophomore Year we had eleven members. This year Doyle E. Sanders moved to Louisville, George Omer Moore decided to farm and Litsey Sanford also; Litsey later became one of Uncle Sam's men.

At the beginning of our Junior Year we had one new member, L. P. Perkins, but he moved to Harrodsburg before the first semester ended. The second semester brought one new member, Mary Alice Driskell from Cornishville, and also at that time we lost Elizabeth Freeman, leaving us with seven girls and one boy, R. H. Gash.
